Ruth Shain Class To Meet October 24

The International Affairs class will hold a pre-opening celebration of the Ruth Shain group's thirty-first consecutive year, on October 24, at 10 a.m. in the Community House.

Because this date is the fifth anniversary of the charter of the United Nations, a special program called, "Reviewing the UN" will be presented with Mrs. Lula Bachman, official observer for the Women Lawyers group of Detroit, as the speaker. She has followed the meetings of various divisions of the UN from their charter meetings in 1945, to this last session of the Assembly.

THE OFFICIAL opening of the class will be on Tuesday, October 31, when Mrs. Shain will review the 1950 Herald-Tribune Forum, which she will attend previous to this meeting. Topic for the forum this year is "Mobilizing America's Strength."

Every interested woman is urged and welcomed to attend the classes. Co-chairman of the class for this year will be Mrs. F. G. Garrison and continuing as secretary will be Mrs. George Green.

The group meets every Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the Community House.

First Meeting Opens Musicale's Jubilee Year

Mrs. I. W. Robertson, president, with charter members and past presidents of the Birmingham Musicale, will greet guests and welcome members when the organization meets today, October 12, for the first program of its silver jubilee season. The gathering will be held at the Community House at 2 p.m.

Guest artist Louisa Penny McCracken, pianist, will present two groups including Un bel di vedremo from "Madame Butterfly" and Depuis le jour from the opera "Louise."

The program committee, under the direction of Mrs. William Hohmeyer, has planned special anniversary concerts.

EACH YEAR the proceeds from the special concerts are used for such philanthropic work as the scholarship fund, music in veterans' hospitals and support of the local Community House. Last year part of the fund was used to send four local students to Interlochen. These music students will appear before the club today, in a panel discussion to relate their experiences. They are Alysanne, Dove, who will be moderator, Alma Jean

MRS. LOUISA MCCRACKEN

Nordman, Ronald Phillips and Bill Berndt.

The Birmingham Musicale was founded here in 1926 by three local women, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, the late Mrs. Leslie Lamborn and Mrs. Helen Shaw Stauch.
