

Ferdale Man Fined $75 in Hills Court

Geneva Rechel of Ferdale paid a $75 fine and $25 costs for reckless driving when he appeared before Justice Alva Richardson in Bloomfield Hills last week.

Rechel was driver of a car Sept. 19, which went out of control at Long Lake and Woodward, and hit three other cars before crashing into a brick wall. Police reported Rechel was travelling at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred.

Under and Over at the Community House

With Lee N. Brennan calling, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skinner, Jr., pass under the bridge formed by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mickelson during one of the square dance sessions at the Community House.

These classes, part of the House's adult education program, are held each Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 10 o'clock. Community House officials say there are still openings in the present class, and if enough demand, good possibilities for the formation of another group at a later date.

Bloomfield Hills PTA Plans Year's Topics; Names 1950 Officers

Discussions and round table-type meetings are planned for the PTA meetings of Bloomfield Hills. Topics will be selected which deal with school policy or trust student problems from the viewpoint of student, teacher and parent.

Members of the PTA board, elected last spring, have chosen officers for the year, naming Clyde Johnson as president. Walter Tiede has been named vice-president and pub-licy chairman; W. F. Corregan, secretary; Robert Sadler, treasurer.

Frederick Prince is hospitality chairman with G. J. Huebner in charge of programs. The election board announced that each ballot automatically included the wife of the elected officer as his assistant
