Couple To Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Milton D. Kitchen of Eyebert road will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Friday, October 20, as the guests of honor at an open house in the Everett road home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kitchen.

Also assisting at the party for relatives and close friends will be their daughter Mrs. Florence Steel of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen were married in Tronsee, Me., in 1900 and have been residents of Birmingham for thirty-one years.

The first free library in America was started in Charleston, S. C. in 1695.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. James R. Patterson of Southfield road and Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Hess of Pontiac are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated in the ceremony at St. James Episcopal church.

THE BRIDE'S gown was fashioned of candlelight satin with a short train. The square yoke neckline of lace extended over her shoulders and a peplum at her waist was edged in the lace.

Her finger-tip veil was held by a halo of net and seed pearls and she carried an arrangement of white roses.

As bridesmaid, Miss Edith Capling of Birmingham wore a gown styled with a gold sash bodice and gold taffeta skirt with an overskirt of gold net. Her hat was of the gold net and taffeta and she carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.
