

Tea by Republican Women Will Honor Candidates' Wives

Republican women of Oakland County are planning a reception at which candidates' wives, rather than candidates, will be honored; at which no speeches will be made and no contributions solicited; at which tea will be poured to a background of soft music; and to which all women, regardless of political affiliation, will be welcomed.

The occasion will be a tea honoring Mrs. Harry F. Kelly, wife of the Republican gubernatorial nominee, as well as the wives of the other Republican nominees for State office.

The affair will be held on Tuesday, October 24, from 1 to 4 p.m. at Northwind Inn, Woodward avenue.

Women Voters Hold Discussion Work Shop Meetings

The first of a series of six workshop meetings, open to the public, on "Learning to Lead a Discussion" was held Monday morning at the Cedar drive home of Mrs. C. N. Blunt, under the supervision of the League of Women Voters.

Next week's meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 25, from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. in Mrs. Blunt's home.

This Monday, several members of the group took turns at leading the discussion, using for the subject, "The League of Women Voters in Action."

Next week's practice discussion will be based upon the second technique; preliminary brief factual reports will be presented by members of the group, followed by general discussion.

Next week's meeting and the remainder of the six planned meetings are open to all who are interested, whether members of the League or Women Voters or not.

Owosso Girl Becomes Bride of W. C. Waterbury

A white satin gown with lace bodice and a brief jacket of the satin, with long lace mitts was selected by Miss Betty Joan Cameron for her October 14 marriage to William Charles Waterbury of Kansas City, Mo. The bridegroom's gift of a strand of pearls was her only jewelry.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clifford Cameron of Owosso; and the late Mr. Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Waterbury of Birmingham are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. William D. Davis officiated in the 2 p.m. ceremony at Christ Episcopal church in Owosso.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Walter S. Browning of Chicago, Ill. Her matron of honor and only attendant was Mrs. Gerald Ramussen of Oxford, Mich.

Donal Price, of Birmingham, was best man and the guests were seated by Gerald Ramussen of Oxford, James Wiles of Lansing and Gerald Tweedie and Robert Kanauer, both of Birmingham.

As honor matron, Mrs. Ramussen was crowned in bottle-green velvet with matching velvet leaves and bronze chrysanthemums forming her headpiece. She also carried and arrangement of bronze mums.

A RECEPTION in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The bride's mother, Mrs. Cameron, selected an afternoon dress of navy blue with a coral hat, while Mrs. Waterbury chose a purple frock with navy hat and accessories.

An all navy blue ensemble, accented by a white orchid corsage, was donned by the bride before leaving for the honeymoon to Williamsburg, Va. After a ten-day wedding trip, the new Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury will make their home in Kansas City, Mo.

Writer to Speak Boufford-Boulet Rites Solemnized Saturday Morning

In a 10:30 a.m. ceremony last Saturday, October 14, Miss Pauline Boulet of Detroit became the bride of Donald F. Boufford of Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Boulet of Detroit are the bride's parents and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Boufford of Madeline drive.

The Rev. Joseph Howard officiated at the nuptials in Guardian Angel church of Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of blush pink satin with seed pearl trim and a chapel train. Her finger-ring veil was held in place by a matching satin brim type headpiece and she carried a bouquet of shaded pink chrysanthemums.

MISS CECIL BOULET attended her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Jean Boufford, sister of bridegroom, and Miss Emma Deiring of Detroit.

The attendants wore identical gowns of dark green with matching headpieces and gauntlets and carried arrangements of deeper shaded pink chrysanthemums.

Robert Schmidt of Farmington served as best man with James Burdick of Detroit and Larry Boulet, a brother of the bride, seating the guests. Ira Waddell of Detroit was soloist for the ceremony.

FOLLOWING THE WEDDING, a family breakfast was held at the Harvard House, for which Mrs. Boulet wore a plum satin afternoon dress with brown velvet accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Boufford selected a navy satin frock with matching velvet accessories and orchid corsage.

An evening reception was held in the K. of C. Hall in Detroit, to the members for presentation of the bride donated a gray flannel suit with black accessories. Upon their return the newlyweds will temporarily reside in Birmingham.
