

Curator To Address Local Women's Club

A general meeting of the Birmingham Women's club will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 7, at the Baldwin Public Library, with Mrs. John E. Duffy, as chairman of the day. Mrs. Eva Galling, curator of Cranbrook Museum, will speak on the subject, "The Cranbrook Museum." Mrs. Galling received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Alabama and her masters degree was received from Yale university. She did additional work at New York university and is now also a teacher of the history of art at Cranbrook Academy of Art. Most of her paintings have been water colors, which have been exhibited in many local shows. Mrs. F. Earle Steele, chairman of the tea committee, will be assisted in the day's activities by Mrs. George Mints, Mrs. Ira Brownell, and Mrs. H. E. Rendar.

LIFE IS BETTER BECAUSE OF PHARMACY

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK

Through the centuries, Pharmacy has contributed immeasurably to the relief and health and general well-being of mankind. The pages of medical history are replete with the accomplishments of this noble profession which has aided so greatly in bringing a better and longer life to all. As we observe National Pharmacy Week, we are reminded of the phenomenal advance of Pharmacy in recent years—the growing number of wonder-working drugs it has made available to physicians everywhere. We are proud of our profession—proud to be Pharmacists—and we are ever ready to blend our skill with that of the physician in time of illness.

Mansfield-Fleming Nuptials Solemnized in Bay City

Miss Geraldine Edith Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Walter Fleming of Bay City, was married to Edmond D. Mansfield, Sr. of Forest avenue, on Saturday afternoon, October 7.

The couple repeated their marriage vows before the altar of Trinity Episcopal church, Bay City, in a double ring ceremony read by the Rev. David T. Davies.

THE BRIDE was gowned in delicate Chantilly lace and satin. The fitted bodice of her frock was detailed with a mandarin collar, wristpoint sleeves and a pointed, ruffled yoke over the bodice.

Mrs. Boyd W. Walker of Los Angeles, Cal., attended her sister as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce DeNo and Loris Boone of Detroit and Mrs. Richard Morton of Kalamazoo.

THE ATTENDANTS wore identical blue satin gowns, accented with off-shoulder necklines, fitted bodices and full skirts.

Matchless tiny pearl chokers given by the bride, and cascade bouquets of red roses completed their ensembles.

James Jensen of Birmingham assisted as best man while Thomas E. Branson of Bloomingdale Hills, Karl Zipt of Atlanta, Ga., George Curtis of Muskegon and John F. Nichols acted as groomsmen.

For her daughter's four o'clock wedding and following reception at White Birch Hills Golf club, Mrs. Fleming selected an emerald green crepe gown with black velvet accessories and a yellow rose corsage. Mrs. Mansfield, Sr., chose a gown of aqua crepe with hints of pink, winter pink hat and an orchid.

BEFORE the young Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield left for a wedding trip to Chicago, Ill., the bride and groom were checked suit with velvet collar and cuffs. Her accessories were of matching velvet and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Miss Mary Pool Becomes Bride of Charles Reeber

Miss Mary E. Pool became the bride of Charles A. Reeber last Saturday morning, October 21, at ten o'clock mass at the Holy Name church, read by the Rev. George Stelham, before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her godfather, Frank H. McLansay of Birmingham, is the daughter of Mrs. B. C. Pool of Harrison road and Dr. H. H. Pool of Oregon. The E. B. Turills of Detroit are parents of the bridegroom.

FOR HER WEDDING, Miss Pool selected a navy blue suit with matching accessories and her navy hat was trimmed in gold. Gold flowers formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. A. F. Russell a sister of the bride, was her only attendant. A blue and gray suit with blue accessories and yellow floral bouquet was chosen by Mrs. Russell.

Serving as best man was Henry O. McNally of Detroit and James Stevenson of Royal Oak was soloist. A noon breakfast was held for the immediate families at Round Inn.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Pool chose a gray dress with black accessories and white flowers, while the bridegroom's mother wore a dusty rose frock with white floral corsage.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Reeber left for a two-week wedding trip through the south and upon their return, will make their home in Detroit.
