Short Beach, Connecticut To Be Home of Newlyweds

Miss Janice Elizabeth DeLee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. DeLee of Pilgrim road, became the bride of Hansford Oliver Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Foster of Williamsburg, Va., in a double ring service last Saturday evening. The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel officiated in the ceremony at the First Methodist church, which was held in the home of the bride's father.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her sister's white satin gown, fashioned with side panniers and accented by tiny seed pearls and Chantilly lace at the sweetheart neckline.

The bridegroom wore a taupe embroidered suit with a small hat of matching material and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Foster's gown was of aqua crepe.

The bridegroom wore a taupe embroidered suit with a small hat of matching material and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Foster's gown was of aqua crepe.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Alfred Thomas, a sister of the bride; Mrs. Ross Pierce, and Mrs. Roger Turner, wore identical gowns in cooperation with matching braided satin caps. They carried arrangements of cinnamon fugi chrysanthemums, which were also used to trim the caps.

Mrs. Byron Ellis, matron of honor and sister of the bride, wore a champagne satin gown and carried a cascade bouquet of lime fugi chrysanthemums.

Mrs. DIXON FOSTER of Irvington, Va., was matron of honor and seated the guests were William W. DeLee of Birmingham, Dr. Merritt Foster of Richmond, Va., Alfred Thomas of Mt. Pleasant and Byron Ellis of Flint.

Mrs. DeLee was gowned in

Kingswood To Give 'Dreamer's Holiday' In Autumn Festival

Kingswood's annual class presentation for the Autumn Festival on October 28, will be a "Dreamer's Holiday," written by three class members, Ann Coulter, Beverly Watkins and Alice Kent. Scheduled to do a fine job of dreaming are Marge Tomlinson and Gloria MacArthur who will pass as two entertaining buns.

For management of the show, the class president, Jean Horrocks, appointed Patsy Hoey and Lydia Irvin. Jane Phillip is the director. Julia Keydel heads the scenery committee, Elaine Darden is head of properties and Cynthia Lopez is in charge of the costumes. Ann Fielding is playing the piano for all rehearsals.

Cranbrook Students At UWF Conference; Plan State Chapter

Two Cranbrook students, Richard Saffir and Charles Yager, flew to Washington, D. C., to attend the fourth annual general assembly of the United World Federalists, Oct. 15-16.

In cooperation with the president of the University of Michigan chapter, the two will begin the organization of a state chapter and executive board to consolidate all UWF activities in Michigan.

They will meet with delegates from other colleges and Wayne University at Cranbrook school Friday to draw up a charter.

Hazel Park Frosh Defeat Cranes 32-0

An outclassed Cranbrook freshman football team was handed a 32-0 loss by Hazel Park last Wednesday.

The first touchdown was scored by Lee McTeer after six minutes.

Judge Moore To Be Speaker at N.G.A. Ingathering Meeting November 1-2

Judge Arthur E. Moore of the Oakland County Juvenile court will be guest speaker at the annual meeting and breakfast of the Birmingham-Bloomfield chapter of the Needlework Guild of America. This "ingathering" will be held on November 1 and 2 at the Community House, with sessions beginning at 11 a. m.

Other guests representing organizations whose interests are similar to those of the N. G. A., will be Mrs. E. Jamison Williams of the Junior League and Mrs. Nelson W. McCormick of the Detroit League for the Handicapped.

A REGENT letter from Mrs. Hill, of Judge Moore's County court, describes Needlework garments as going to "homes" which have been called to the attention of the Juvenile Court and with whom we are working and trying to rehabilitate.

She describes the need for infant wear and emphasizes that hospitals releasing tiny babies to the care of the court, have no funds for providing garments.

The Birmingham-Bloomfield Needlework Guild garments and layettes are used entirely for illegitimate children that the court may have clothing to take to the hospital at the time they call for the baby.

MRS. ROBERT N. WOODRUFF, who follows Mrs. Sterling Saunders as chairman of distribution, announces that the American Red Cross has asked specifically for sheets, pillow cases and for one hundred pairs of blue jeans.

In appealing to directors and members generosity this fall, Mrs. Benjamin Brewster reports that over three thousand new garments
