Miss Duffour Becomes Bride in High Noon Rites
 The high noon rites uniting Miss Sofia Marie Duffour and Clifton Charles Stockwell in marriage, were read last Saturday, October 21, by the Rev. Joseph Kress at Holy Name church.
 The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marius A. Duffour of Moberg avenue and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stockwell of Clawson, Mich. are parents of the bridegroom.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in Chantilly lace over white nylon net and her fingertip nylon veil was gathered into a lace crown headress trimmed in tiny seed pearls.
 HER ENSEMBLE was accented by a single strand of pearls about her neck and she carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book topped with an orchid and fleur-de-amour.
 As her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Eleanor Florence Duffour was gowned in Return from Family Visit in Tokyo

Miss Betty Ann Pierce and her brother Bice, have returned to the States by plane after spending the summer vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Pierce in Tokyo, Japan. The Pierce family formerly made their home in Birmingham.
 While their daughter and son were in Honolulu recently they visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball, also former Birmingham residents. They then stopped over in San Francisco and Chicago to visit with college friends.
 Miss Pierce has returned to her studies at Smith college and her brother is again a student at the University of Michigan.

MRS. CLIFTON C. STOCKWELL range of American beauty shops.
 Roy Stockwell of Royal Oak served as his brother's best man and the ushers were Fred Bude of Royal Oak and Donald Garis of Ferndale.
AS SHE RECEIVED her guests at the reception in the Oak Palms hall, Mrs. Duffour was wearing a light gray lame frock with a dark gray feathered hat and gardenia corsage. Mrs. Stockwell chose a taupe silk crepe dress with dark brown accessories and gardenia corsage.
 The new Mrs. Stockwell changed to a red wool dress with red and white coat and black suede accessories for her wedding trip to the Smoky mountains.
 When they return, Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell will move into their new home on Phillips avenue in Clawson.
 Pastry in many forms makes a wonderful base for creamed food mixtures. Buttered triangles of meat pie; squares of bread with crusts removed can be buttered and pressed into muffin pans and baked crisp for toast cups.
