

Ergasterian's 22nd Season Opens With Several Short Plays

Ergasterian's Cranbrook rang up the curtain on its 22nd year Saturday evening with several short plays.

"The Means No", related the incidents in a businessman's near downfall, while "Elizabeth the Queen" told of one of the loves of famous Queen Elizabeth.

The feature presentation was "Don't You Wish It", a comedy-parody on registration day at Cranbrook, written by Jan Simpson, vice-president of Ergasterian.

"Meridian 2-7212" was the venue drama which began the series. Like the story of "The Lady or the Tiger", the outcome was left to the imagination of the audience. Leading roles were taken by Marvin Davidson, Tom Bowens and Peggy Phillips of Kingwood.

Lucille Meinberg Becomes Bride of Donald Burrell

Miss Lucille E. Meinberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Meinberg of Adams road, stood before the floral and fern banded altar of Redeemer Lutheran church to repeat her nuptial vows with Donald M. Burrell, last Saturday.

MRS. DONALD M. BURRELL
Donald M. Burrell, last Saturday, October 14.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Chancery Burrell of Detroit, the Rev. Theodore Wugrazer, Jr., officiated in the double ring ceremony at 5:30 in the afternoon.

THE BRIDAL GOWN, made by Miss Meinberg, was fashioned of cream silk taffeta with a lace jacket, long pointed sleeves and traditional train. Her full length illusion veil fell from a lace covered taffeta cap and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. William H. Cordes of Birmingham was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Jacqueline Gibson of Royal Oak, Elizabeth Wasson of Detroit and Marilyn Barrell, sister of the bridegroom.

THE ATTENDANTS' flocks, also made by Miss Meinberg, were fashioned after the bridal gown. The honor matron was gowned in beige, the bridesmaids in green taffeta and lace, accented by shower bouquets of beige shaded and tulleman roses.

Serving as best man was Orville Martin of Detroit and the ushers were Harlan Rahl of Detroit, Stanley Owen of Detroit and Frederick Meinberg, brother of the bride, from Birmingham.

A RECEPTION in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Mrs. Meinberg wore a gray crepe gown with lace bodice, accented by a grape felt hat with feather trim and orchid corsage. Mrs. Burrell selected a gray crepe gown with pink felt hat and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip through the Smoky mountains and Washington, D. C., for which the bride donned a carmine colored gabardine suit, brown felt hat, lizard accessories and white orchid corsage.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell will reside in 12819 Grayfield avenue in Detroit.

Local U-M Student Helps Fraternity To Track Meet Win

Two first places by Carl Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Bryant, 884 Harrison, enabled Delta Sigma Phi to win the annual intramural fraternity outdoor track meet at University of Michigan last Thursday.

His fraternity edged out second place Beta Theta Pi 22-20. Bryant skinned the 55 yard low hurdles in .84 and the 65 yard highs in .83. He is a senior at the university and graduated from Birmingham high school in 1945.

College Homecoming

Many localities were among the Kalamazoo college students who celebrated their annual Homecoming Day last Saturday, October 21.

The queen of Homecoming, Miss Joan Seabridge of St. Clair Shores, and her court were presented at the half-time ceremonies of the Kalamazoo-Albion football game and also reigned at the dance that night.

Uncle Escorts Bride to Altar in Candlelight Rites

Miss Janice Adele Upmeyer, daughter of Mrs. Carl H. Upmeyer of Bloomfield court, was escorted down the aisle on the arm of her uncle, E. M. Vehmezer, last Saturday evening, when she met

MRS. GEORGE ROEBUCK, JR.
George Roebuck, Jr., at the altar.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roebuck, Sr. of Detroit. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt read the 8 o'clock candlelight nuptials in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Miss Upmeyer was gowned in white satin with seed pearl embroidered marquisette insets at the neck and shoulders, long pointed sleeves and a full length train.

A FLEMISH LACE Juliet cap

held her fingertip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis, accented with an orchid.

An matron of honor, Mrs. Let A. Renauld of Birmingham was gowned in gold taffeta with a matching Juliet cap. Her strapless gown was accented with a large cape of net bordered in taffeta and she carried an arrangement of shaded gold chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. John H. Roy of Niles, Miss Mary Frederick J. Mason of Detroit, and the bride's cousin Mrs. Richard L. Wibal of Lafayette, all wore identically styled gowns of green taffeta with matching caps and carried gold chrysanthemum bouquets.

Gift Assignment

THE myriad of Gifts awaiting here; these loaded cases and shelves and tables of them; are these days increasingly carrying out important assignments with effectiveness.

Chosen with the utmost care before they ever reach this Shop, in turn the choosing of "just-that-exacting-Gift" is made much simpler; particularly when our experienced assistance in selections is at your command.

Then when these Gifts go on assignment to your friends they speak eloquently of your good taste and thoughtfulness from the moment they cease to nestle in their appropriate wrappings and become, thereafter, longtime personal possessions—and consistent though silent ambassadors of your regard as well!
