

Student Councils Of EML Schools to Meet At Community House

For the first time in five years, Birmingham will be the scene of the Eastern Michigan congress

Oct. 28 at the Community house. The congress is composed of representatives from the student councils of all Eastern Michigan league schools with the purpose of discussing their common problems.

LOCAL STUDENTS selected to officiate at the meeting are:

Lea Albert, president; Bill Wilkinson, treasurer; and Robin Renfrew, secretary.

Chairman of the welcome committee are Sue Mason and Marilyn Hart; luncheon, Mary Hinson; program, Mary Lou Gregory; entertainment, Ann Morrow; news sheet, Bill Alkley; printing, Adelaide Mitchell and Sue Swartz.

Among the local women assisting Mrs. Luce in planning these programs are Mrs. Graham John Graham, Mrs. Thomas H. Hewlett, Mrs. Danzan A. McCallum, Mrs. Harry L. Winston and Mrs. Harry T. Wood.

ADOLPH CAVALLO of the Art Institute's education department will conduct the series which includes gallery visits and workshops as well as illustrated lectures.

Alternating between the City Club and Art Institute, meetings will be held twice monthly, on Wednesdays at 11 a.m. during October and November, and will be resumed after the holidays.

The opening dates are October 11 and November 8, at the City Club and October 25 and November 29, at the Art Institute.

THE PROGRAM: To afford women an opportunity to increase their appreciation of art for their own greater enjoyment of paintings, sculpture and decorative design, is a project of the City Club's art committee.

Tours of the Art Institute's galleries and special exhibitions will be conducted during hours when it is otherwise closed. The Charles Demuth show will be visited October 25 and the Michigan Artist's exhibition on November 29.

The institute's workshops will be used to give members the "feel" of working with paints, clay and other materials.

THE "MR. and MRS." art exhibits by husband and wife teams which are featured each month at the City club are open to club members and their guests.

Results from the sale of student union football tickets at Baldwin were reported Monday, with 87 per cent of the school purchasing.

Net sales showed $688.50 turned in on tickets, with students purchasing 442 and teachers 16. Over 120 students were exempt

City Club Plans Art Programs

The Women's City club's art committee, headed by Mrs. Harvey G. Luce of north Woodward avenue in Bloomfield Hills, will sponsor a series of lectures on "The Understanding of Art", in cooperation with the Detroit Institute of Arts. The program will begin on October 11 at the City Club.

Among the local women assisting Mrs. Luce in planning these programs are Mrs. Graham John Graham, Mrs. Thomas H. Hewlett, Mrs. Danzan A. McCallum, Mrs. Harry L. Winston and Mrs. Harry T. Wood.

News Notes from Vaughan School

Class officers for the seventh and eighth grades were elected this week. Seventh grade choices are Toby Wells, president; Virginia Dowling, vice-president; Barbara Woodson, secretary; and Priscilla Andrews, treasurer. Nellie Oren is seventh grade adviser.

Eighth grade selections are Virginia MacLean, president; Bill Ralisch, vice-president; Kitty Proctor, secretary; and Ralph Garlick, treasurer. Mrs. Richard Price is adviser.

Kenneth Ollis took a class of 20 ninth graders to Cranbrook Institute of Science last Wednesday. They saw objects in the museum connected with their ancient history studies. Among the things which attracted the students were a geological time chart and tracks of a dinosaur.

Student Ticket Sale Results Announced

By Lance Minor

Results from the sale of student union football tickets at Baldwin were reported Monday, with 87 per cent of the school purchasing. Net sales showed $688.50 turned in on tickets, with students purchasing 442 and teachers 16. Over 120 students were exempt from purchasing tickets because they are members of the land, football squad, and field workers.

THE FIRST honorarium with 100 per cent was E. A. Hubbard's juniors who received $10 and guest tickets. John Simonds' honorarium also won $10 because he tied with 100 per cent.

In second place were Mrs. Mary Hartwick's and Ross Scrimgeour's senior honorariums, who received $5 prizes.

A few adult season tickets are still available for a reduced price of $3.50 because one home game has been played.

Dollar for Dollar you can't beat a PONTIAC

If you do any driving today, the chances are you will see a new Pontiac before you have gone very far—for more people are driving Pontiacs than ever before.

Take a good look at the next new Pontiac you see. Some of the reasons why its owner is so proud of his car will be quickly apparent. You can see that Pontiac stands out above all other cars for rare beauty. You can see that Pontiac is a big, luxurious automobile. You can see that Pontiac glides away in traffic and strides smoothly along the open road.

Some things you can't see, but they are there nevertheless. Things like Pontiac's dependability year after year—things like the deep pride and satisfaction of owning and driving this immensely respected automobile—things like Pontiac's remarkable record for long-range economy.

One look is very convincing, but a few miles behind the wheel is the surest way to know that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!
