Representatives of 16 States Found at Neighborhood Party

On Saturday, September second, a neighborhood party was given by five families of the Fairfield Homes Section in Birmingham, which has been developed in the past two and a half years.

Those giving the party were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casselberry, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Heizer and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Purvis, with Mrs. Evans acting as chairman.

Supper was served at 5:30 o'clock in the evening out in the Heizer and Purvis gardens on Henrietta Street. Later, cards were played in the homes of the five hosts and hostesses.

APPROXIMATELY 90 guests were invited, all being within the Fairfield section. Twenty-four of the guests were newcomers to the Bates street area, one having moved in just the day previous to the party, which is proof that this group wastes no time in welcoming new comer neighbors.
