Robertsons Motor to Maine Coast Following Nuptials Troth Revealed

Miss Mary Jean Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Henderson of Chesterfield road, became the bride of Willard Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Robertson of Manchester, Vt., in J., a sorority sister of the bride; and Mrs. William B. Vance of Birmingham.

ALL THE TENDANTS were identical gowns of net and satin with net bouffant skirts topped by satin cascade-style jackets. The maid of honor's gown was of a grape shade and those of the bridesmaids were in foam green hues. They carried cascade bouquets of asters with rye.

A brother of the bridegroom, David Robertson, served as best man and seating the guests were two fraternity brothers, Charles F. Gordon of Manchester, N. H., and Edward Waters of South Norwalk, Conn.; a cousin of the bride, William E. Sisson of Three Rivers, Mich.; Thomas I. Dolan of Greenville, Mich.; and William B. Vance of Birmingham.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, for which Mrs. Henderson selected a chantilly lace floor-length gown of forest green with a matching hat; while Mrs. Robertson chose a Chantilly lace gown of grey with dusty pink accessories.

Before leaving on a motor trip to the Maine coast, the young Mrs. Robertson donned a traveling suit of light blue gabardine with brown accessories. The couple will later return to make their home in Detroit.
