

Nuptials Solemnized in Foxcroft Home Ceremony

In a ceremony read last Saturday at the Foxcroft home of her parents, Miss Shirley Ann Somers became the bride of Roland B. Calhoun. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald C. Somers of Valley Forge drive in Foxcroft and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James K. Calhoun of Glenwood, Ill., and the late Mr. Calhoun.

The Rev. Charles Scheide of Grace Pointe Congregational church officiated in the 4:30 afternoon nuptials.

The bride's candle-light satin gown with its lace fitted bodice was fashioned in long pointed sleeves, Peter Pan collar and full skirt which extended into a sweep-style train.

HER SHOULDER-LENGTH veil of illusion fell from a lace bonnet headdress and she carried a bouquet of Fuji mums with trailing ivy streamers.

As her matron of honor and only attendant, Mrs. Douglas Putnam of Ann Arbor wore a gown of light yellow marquisette with matching bonnet hat and a bouquet arrangement of yellow and white Fuji mums with ivy streamers.

A brother of the bridegroom, James K. Calhoun served as best man and the bride's brother, David Somers seated the guests.

MRS. ROLAND B. CALHOUN

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding and reception in their home, Mrs. Somers selected a light teal-blue satin afternoon frock with least colored accessories and a matching orchid corsage, while Mrs. Calhoun chose an afternoon ensemble of deeper shaded teal with a white orchid corsage.

Before leaving for an eastern motor trip, the young Mrs. Calhoun donned a blue and white check suit with navy accessories and a corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun will make their home in Elmhurst, Ill.

William N. Braleys Mark Anniversary With Dinner Party

Dr. and Mrs. William N. Braley of Riverside drive celebrated their wedding anniversary with a dinner party for 40 guests at the Detroit Athletic club last Thursday evening.

The fete not only marked the Braleys' anniversary, but also honored their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Barnes of Detroit, who chose the parents' September seventh wedding date for their marriage 13 years ago.

The dinner took place in the club's ladies dining room, where white flowers combined with pastel blooms were used in decoration. Bridge and canasta games followed the meal.

AMONG THE GUESTS were the Braley's other son-in-law and daughter, the William Owen Armstrongs, a bridal couple of August 12, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ballard, who returned from their wedding trip in time for the party.

Others present were the Lawrence E. Browns, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Barnes, Mrs. Clayton Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harfst, Dr. and Mrs. Langdon T. Crane, Dr. and Mrs. Don A. Cohee and Dr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Blight.

ALSO ATTENDING were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stevens, the Ernest L. Southwicks, the Harry A. Thurns, the Samuel Langs, the E. E. Herricks, Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Worthley, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Letton, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fromm, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Knowles and the Charles A. Zabriskies.

A fertility rite of a Bengal marriage ceremony consists in tying the bridal couple to a tree by thread.

"Modern?"

"Of course— It's ELECTRIC!"

ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS— THE LAST WORD IN COMFORT

You bet they're modern! Electric water heaters are trouble-free—more convenient, more dependable . . . than any other type.

For the very last word in modern, carefree living—choose an electric water heater. See your plumbing dealer, your appliance dealer or any Edison office.

DETROIT EDISON

It Adds So Much to the Joy of Living!

You walk out of the house, and there it stands—waiting for you in the driveway.

You've seen it hundreds of times before—but it's so attractive, there in the sunlight, that you stop instinctively for a second look.

The sun lights up the gleaming chrome and frames the whole gorgeous picture. The soft finish shimmers in the shadows. A pattern of fine fabric shows through the open window. And there's the beautiful steering wheel—inviting you in.

Yes, it's a lovely day! And the next thing you know, you're out in traffic—and the powerful engine is gliding you along as if by automatic propulsion.

You ride so softly and quietly and easily that judging time and distance is the hardest work you do!

The lights turn red and the lights turn green—the hills and valleys flow under the wheels . . . and every stretch of highway ahead is a study in enchantment.

Though you take to the highway ten times a day, each trip is a thrill all over again. You thrill to its beauty, the way it rides, the way it behaves, the way it handles—and, being human, you like the admiring glances which other motorists toss your way.

Happiness, as everyone knows is a state of mind—but it is aided and abetted by your satisfaction with the things about you.

And this we can promise for Cadillac: It will add to your satisfaction every mile you drive. Many say it enriches their lives to an unbelievable degree.

Why not get one for your happiness?
