

There is something lacking in higher educational methods when it turns out graduates incapable of meeting contemporary problems. When will the universities place more emphasis on moral values?

Tickets Available For 'Caddie Day'

The annual "Caddie Day" at Briggs stadium will be held next Thursday, Sept. 28, when the Detroit Tigers oppose the St. Louis Browns, according to Ed Kierber, Birmingham YMCA secretary. Tickets for prospective caddies and those who have been working on the links, may be secured from caddie masters at the various golf clubs or from the local Y office at 144 West Maple.

Boys 14 years or older are eligible and will be the guests of Walter O. Briggs, Detroit Baseball club owner. Kierber said that there is no charge but admission will be by ticket only. Boys must make their own arrangements for being excused from school.
