Hi Jinks on Lahser

The Berkshire association held its annual fall party at the home of the Robert Faverty's on Lahser road Sunday afternoon, Sept. 10. An outdoor dinner and an afternoon of pleasure was arranged by the wives of the board members. Mrs. Allan Brady was chairman of the affair with Mrs. G. B. Helmreich of Lahser road as co-chairman. Included on the committee were Mrs. Charles Meagher, Mrs. Ralph Tweedale, Mrs. Jack Carmichael and Mrs. Howard Johnson.

Highlighting the get-together was the presentation of twin cakes, three feet in diameter and three feet high, at the dearest course, donated by the Hi Dawsons and served to the more than 150 guests.

Mrs. Arthur Greiner, entertainment chairman, and the Irwin Whites of Wellington road arranged a square dance for the affair. White, who furnished the music, acted as caller.

Meetings

Karen Gavic, daughter of the Carl Cavics, was hostess to 20 members of the Luther League of the Redeemer Lutheran Church at an outdoor party at the Gavic's Oak court home last Saturday evening. Inclement weather having forced a postponement from the announced earlier date.

A meeting of the board of the Northwest Detroit Kiwanis club was held at the home of Malcolm Denny on 14 Mile road last Wednesday evening. Denny was host to 14 members at dinner, served by Dick Lewis and Mrs. Jean Shenk. A business meeting followed.

St. Anne's Guild, the Franklin area chapter of the Guild of Holy Name Church, Birmingham, will open its fall season Wednesday, Sept. 27, meeting at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Kasten on Mountain View lane. Mrs. Kasten will serve an afternoon dessert course, which will be followed by a business meeting.

Members of the Friendly circle will gather at the home of Mrs. Hassell Wright, 31708 Telegraph road, at noon on Tuesday, Sept. 26, to see for the Franklin country fair. Dessert and beverage will be served.

We Heard It Said By:—

CITY COMMISSIONER CHAD M. RITCHIE: "I spend from six to eight hours every Saturday or Sunday going around Birmingham checking on the items which appear on the next week's commission agenda. I believe I must do this so I can intelligently act upon these matters at the meeting. On-the-spot investigations and first-hand talks with the neighbors is a 'must' for me."

Mrs. Margaret Bice To Speak At First Pierce PTA Meeting

The Pierce school PTA will hold its first meeting of the school year tonight at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. Mrs. Margaret Bice will speak on "Selecting Books for Your Children."

Mrs. Bice is a special instructor in library science at Wayne university, specializing in book selection for children and is also assistant principal of the Dixon elementary school in Detroit.

She is a member of the joint committee of the National Education Association and the American library association which has recently selected the 60 best books for children. This committee also confers the annual rewards for the best children's books made by these associations.

Mrs. Bice will bring a collection of children's books for each age group from pre-school through sixth grade for inspection by parents. The collection will be on display in the auditorium following the meeting.

EDWARD E. CODNER, PTA president said: "We are off to an excellent start with a program that should be of very great help to all of us and we extend a most cordial invitation to the parents of all children in Pierce school." New parents will be welcomed by Mrs. Thomas T. Stollberg, hospitality chairman, and her two assistants, Mrs. D. B. Eberhart and Howard Riemann, who will serve refreshments following the meeting.
