Virginia J. Blinn Becomes Bride in Afternoon Rites

Miss Virginia Jeanne Blinn, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Crane Blinn of Stanley road, last Saturday became the bride of James Emery Bryant of Highland Park, in a 3:30 p.m. ceremony read by the Rev. Harold E. Towne at St. James Episcopal church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl N. Bryant of Ann Arbor.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Maj. General Stanley E. Reinhardt, the bride wore a gown of traditional white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in seed pearls which were repeated on the peplum.

HER FINGER-TIP length, triple-tiered veil of illusion was gathered into a small cap and her bouquet was an arrangement of stephanotis and ivy, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Virginia Reinhardt of Birmingham attended her cousin as maid of honor. Her gown was detailed with a white satin bodice, snugly fitted into a full white net skirt. Her headpiece was a roll of American beauty-colored net and she carried a sheaf of American beauty roses.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Mrs. Eleanor Grimstad, a sister of the bridegroom from Ann Arbor, and Miss Katherine Kemp of Birmingham, wore gowns identical to that of the honor maid.

William Norman Fleming of Ann Arbor was best man and seating the guests were Dan M. Davey of Detroit, George R. Sandenburgh, Jr., of Ann Arbor and Joseph Hooper and Robert Wagner of Ann Arbor.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Rotunda Inn, for which Mrs. Blinn, mother of the bride, wore a slate blue crepe afternoon dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gas-

Her fiancé also was graduated from Baldwin High school and at present is a student at Michigan State college where he is affiliated with Psi Upsilon fraternity.

No immediate wedding plans have been announced by the couple.

To Present Showing of Michigan Hand Woven Fabrics

In the interest of acquainting the public with Michigan's hand woven fabrics, the Gillie-Bigger Interiors shop of Telegraph road will present a museum-type public showing of interiors, at the Birmingham Community House on September 28, 29 and 30. This show will be open to the public during the hours of 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and again from 7:00 until 9:00 p.m. each day.

Displayed will be Michigan hand woven upholstery, drapery and carpet fabrics, including works of some twenty nationally known experts, such as Mary Ann Strong of Cranbrook, Robert Sailor, Ethel Fitzgibbons and Ruth Overman.

None of the items at the showing will be on sale.

Troth Revealed

Miss Alice Sperry

Mr. and Mrs. Holland Robert Sperry of Cranbrook School announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to Jervis Bell McMechan, son of Mrs. Gerald James McMechan of Larchmont drive and the late Mr. McMechan.

Miss Sperry graduated from Oxford school in Hartford, Conn., and attended Middlebury college in Vermont, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was also a member of the Cotton Club in Hartford.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Cranbrook school and Harvard university, where he was a member of the Hasty Pudding Institute and Phi Kappa Phi honor society.

He served abroad as a lieutenant in the navy and is now active in motion pictures, as a writer and director.

No immediate wedding plans have been announced.

Upton-Drake Nuptials Read In Christ Church Cranbrook

Miss Anne Lloyd Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Drake of Pilgrim road, and Herbert H. Upton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Upton, Ann Arbor, exchanged their marriage vows at a ceremony in Christ Church, Cranbrook, before an altar banked with white fuyu and daisy chrysanthemums.

The bride's candlelight satin gown was chastely with a front panel of white lace and tiny Peter Pan collar. Her long veil of pointe d'esprit was bordered with Belgian lace and formed a mantilla over the bride's hair. A spray arrangement of white roses formed the bridal bouquet.

MISS ELIZABETH DRAKE was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids included a mother, sister, Miss Mary Drake, Miss Mary Rogers, Miss Betty Hooper and the Misses Grace and Helen Mack.

The honor maid was gown in white with blue tulle, detailed with a wide V neckline edged in nylon tulle and a full skirt over crinoline. Her headpiece was a crown of starched net and she carried coral daisy pompon chrysanthemums.

THE OTHER ATTENDANTS were her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids included a mother, sister, Miss Mary Drake, Miss Mary Rogers, Miss Betty Hooper and the Misses Grace and Helen Mack.

Dr. Arthur C. Upton, Jr., of Ann Arbor attended his brother as best man and the ushers included another brother, John Upton, James Gielow of Detroit, Donald Sperry, Jr., of River Forest, Ill., Ward Patterson of Ann Arbor and Stephen Upton of Saginaw.

For her daughter's wedding and following reception at Orchard Lake Country club, Mrs. Drake wore a gown of shimmering turquoise tulle embroidered in white, over tulle with a small matching hat and shoulder corsage of white daisy chrysanthemums.

MRS. UPTON'S ensemble was of periwinkle blue lace and chiffon

Nationwide Proving Ground Demonstrates FAMED ECONOMY of FORD TRUCKS

Ford Huron, Mich. Both driver and owner stand beside the Ford F-5 Platform job of the Wilbert Burtal Vaults Company. Ford's Economy Run is covering every truck-using occupation!

Gigantic Ford Economy Run shows what Ford Truck owners have known all along—Ford operation is amazingly thrifty.

Panels and Pickups, Stakes and Big Jobs—every model of the famous Ford Truck line is entered in Ford's gigantic, 48-state Economy Run. Grocers, farmers, construction men, contract haulers—every type of job and occupation all across the nation is represented.

All four of Ford's great truck engines—the 95-h.p. and the 110-h.p. Sixes, the 100-h.p. and 145-h.p. V-8's—are under constant on-the-job test, demonstrating what most truck owners have found out for fact—a Ford Truck engine uses less gas to give you the power you need for your job.

On-the-Job Proof! This amazing Economy Run will go on for 6 months—it started July 1 and will run to December 31, 1950. Under actual working conditions, thousands of Ford Truck owners are keeping authentic day-to-day records of gas and oil consumption, of all repairs and maintenance, of every mile travelled, of all loads hauled. The result—the most comprehensive demonstration of operating economy in truck history.
