The St. James Supper club, which meets monthly at the St. James church, will hold its first fall meeting at 7:00 p.m. on September 27. Guest for the evening will be Mrs. Harvey Sanderson, an elocutionist.

Chairmen of the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Emmett, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. William Cooner, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey deMeules, Mr. and Mrs. George Thom and Mr. and Mrs. William Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Upper To Reside in Ann Arbor

In a 4:30 o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt in Christ Church Cranbrook last Thursday, Miss Claudia Overing extended into a wide circular train.

COMPLEMENTING the ensemble was her mother's wedding veil, which was caught in a coronet of heirloom lace in princess-applique, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white chrysanthemums with ivy.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Jordan U. of New York, a matron of honor, Miss Evelyn Willard of Loudonville, N. Y., as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Joann Smith of Birmingham and Miss Ann Gehrke of Pleasant Ridge.

They were identically styled gowns of silver-green satin and falls with caps of ivy on their heads and carried bouquets of maroon chrysanthemums and ivy.

RICHARD SHESGREEN of Detroit served the bridegroom as best man and the usher were Edward S. Reid III and William O. Reid, brothers of the bride; Jasper R. Reid, Jr. the bride's cousin; and Milton J. Higgs of Bay City.

For her daughter's wedding and following reception for the families and close friends, Mrs. Upper chose a soft rose crepe gown with blue accessories.

THE YOUNG Mr. and Mrs. Upper later left for a wedding trip through northern Michigan. For traveling, the bride donned a gray flannel suit with chestnut jacket, accented with black velvet accessories.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Ann Arbor, where they will begin work on their master's degrees at the University of Michigan.

MRS. JACK UPPER
Mrs. Reid became the bride of Jack LeRoy Upper.

Miss Reid is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., of Clifton drive and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Claude L. Upper of Rosedale Park and the late Mr. Upper.

The bride wore a Victorian-styled gown of ivory satin, detailed with self-covered buttons running from a pearl embroidered collar to the waist of the long-sleeved bodice and her full skirt
