Committee Plans Fall Fair, To Be Held October 6

Mrs. Leslie H. Green, general chairman of the Fall Fair of Bloomfield Hills Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association, has called her aides together to make final plans for the scholarship-funds-raising occasion. The fair will be held, rain or shine, on Friday, October 6, beginning at 2:00 p.m.

Decorated tables will be set up on the grounds of Mrs. Green's home, Turtle Lake Farms, in Bloomfield Hills. There, will be displayed the cooperative efforts of each member of the club, including baked goods, a white, elfant booth, fall perennial plants and other household items.

If the weather should dampen their spirits that day, the ladies will move the fair inside one of the large buildings on the estate. Committee chairmen are Mrs. Earl A. Thompson, apron and pot-holders; Mrs. Leroy G. Vandever,

Mrs. Lapworth To Speak at U. of M. Alumnae Meeting

The University of Michigan Alumnae group will have its first fall meeting on Tuesday evening, September 26, at 8:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Edward Rothman, 508 Linden road.

Mrs. Charles Lapworth, English teacher to foreign-born in Detroit, will speak on "English to D. P.'s of College Level". Mrs. Lapworth has been helping train in-service teachers at Central High school for eight years and immediately following World War II, began a special class for foreign-speaking in this country. She has also worked out an orientation program, taking the students to visit such points of interest as Cranbrook, Wayne University, factories, newspaper plants, radio stations, museums and others.

This meeting will be open to all women interested in the University of Michigan's activities, and those interested in the group are invited to attend. Programs for all the activities are pointed to educational fields.

A.A.U.W. Begins Thirty-First Year

The A. A. U. W. will begin its thirty-first season with a dessert luncheon at the Community house on Wednesday, September 27, at 1:00 p.m. Mrs. Ralph B. Alpaugh, N. E. Central Region vice-president of the American Association of University Women, will address the meeting on the subject, "We Look at Ourselves as University Women."

Although she received her Ph. B. degree from the University of Chicago and her M. A. from Ohio State University, she has had six years of graduate work in administration and economics and has published numerous articles on the responsibilities of university women, as well as a study, "The Wage Theories of American Economists."

The general purpose of Wednesday's meeting is to acquaint new members with the purposes and work of A.A.U.W., and its program for the coming year.

Mrs. Charles Shain will recount the organizing history of the local chapter and an orientation list will be presented. A partial list of the cast includes Alice Taber, president; Jeanne Lloyd, secretary; Mrs. Margaret M. Marian Ratchiff, Genevieve Hambley, Betty Kegel, Frances Patton and Lucille Dennison, puppeteer, with some of her puppets.

One of the most unusual and difficult assignments ever given U. S. Marines was to transport several lions from Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, to the sea coast. The lions were to be presented to President Theodore Roosevelt as a gift from Emperor Menelik.
