Mrs. W. J. Ellsworth of Hanover, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Protheroe of Hanna street had as their house guests last weekend, a nephew, O. Pollard and his friends, Thomas Basie, both of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Mrs. Richard S. Stewart of Southfield road, has been a recent guest at the Hotel Statler in Cleveland, O.

Mrs. O'Brien Marks 90 Years

Mrs. Belle Jennings O'Brien of North Woodward avenue celebrated her ninetieth birthday last Thursday with an open house given by her daughter, Mrs. Lewis C. Erb in her Huntington Woods home that afternoon for forty guests. In the evening there was a party for the family and close friends.

Mrs. Dudley Carson poured at the tea table in the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Fred W. Smith of Royal Oak and Mrs. Fred W. Schultz of Birmingham.

GUESTS ARRIVED for the affair from Pontiac, Birmingham, Rochester, Royal Oak and Detroit, among them, Congressman Dondero and his wife who were on their way to Washington. Tiny Miss Mary Ellen Benister, aged three, helped her great-grandmother blow out the nine candles "and guess the rest", on her birthday cake.

Mrs. O'Brien, the great-granddaughter of William Poppleton, one of the first local pioneers, has four daughters, one deceased. Eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She is one of the few local residents remaining who attended the "new" Hill School.

SHE WAS honored on her birthday with gifts and remembrances of every description including bouquets of flowers from other states, which were placed throughout the house for the occasion.
