GOP Leaders Seek 100% Registration For Nov. Election

Determined to bring about a record Republican vote in Birmingham and Oakland County Nov. 7, nearly a hundred men and women gathered in the Community House Tuesday night to perfect an organization of "block workers."

Chief objectives are to obtain 100 per cent registration of all eligible voters by Oct. 18, closing date, and to get them to the polls Nov. 7.

City Clerk Announces Registration Hours

Miss Irene Hanley, Birmingham city clerk, said here she will be open on a special schedule to handle registrations for the November 7 election.

Voters may register from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 30 and Oct. 7 and 14. The office will also be open from 7 to 9 the evenings of Oct. 16 and 17. Deadline for all registrations is at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 18.

Certain Shrubbery On Lincoln Parkway Will Be Removed

All shrubbery up to 50 feet high at intersections and cross-overs on Lincoln avenue north of Maple quarters and south of Tracy will be removed as a public safety measure, city commissioners decreed Monday evening.

CITY MANAGER Donald C. Egbert pointed out that several years ago the commission considered the matter, but since then it had been left to private property rights.

WITH SHIRA and Tracy sparking the drive, the ball was brought to the Dearborn 31. On third down Maple quarters, Stu Scheffele connected with a beautiful pass to Tracy on the 20.

On third down, Park took the handoff from Werton and, shaking himself loose, went around the right end to score Dearborn's first touchdown. Shira made an attempted kick for conversion failed and the score was Birmingham 12, Dearborn 0.

The Community Council sponsored by the Community Council Youth Council, which is sponsored by the Community Council.

THE GROUP, aided professionally by William G. Robinson from the U. of M., last spring made a study of existing facilities and more it has become evident that Birmingham's recreation program was the hands of so many organizations that an overall study by an outside group was necessary.

WITH COMPLETION of the Torry school and new high school, the report says, Birmingham will be equipped with indoor recreational facilities.

Family Service Opens New Office

This week the Family Service of Oakland county opened temporary offices in Birmingham. The offices, which will also serve as administrative headquarters for the agency, are located temporarily in the former Arthur Murray dance studio at 114 S. Woodward.

BOARD MEMBERS from the local area are Paul Noel Averill, president, Mrs. T. Hollister Mabey, Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman, Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Mrs. Gustavus Pope, Mrs. T. Lewis and the Rev. N. Drescol.

FAMILY DIFFICULTIES that bring people to the family agency include many, marriage strains, children's growth, adolescent conduct, illness and handicap, economic adjustments. These are the problems with which the professional caseworker is concerned.

THE ORGANIZATION offers service in relation to personal and family difficulties. All social sciences to stress the importance of fostering sound family life.

Maple Gridders Face Mt. Clemens Here Tomorrow

With two victories already under their belts, the Dearborn Bathers, defending Eastern Michigan league champions, invade the city tomorrow evening for the first home game on the Birmingham field.

THE BATHERS work from a single wing formation, shifting right and left, a system similar to that used by Birmingham.
