Frank Pearsalls To Celebrate Golden Anniversary Sunday

Vacationing in Sarasota, Fla., is Douglas Dorman of Glangary road. He is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Dorman of Sarasota.

Mrs. A. G. Sweet of La Verne, Cal., with her mother, Mrs. Pitts, arrived here last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smart of Cedar drive. Among the week's activities was a dinner with the Smarts at Devon Gables and a luncheon at the D.A.C., hosted by Mr. Smart's mother, Mrs. Frederick Smart, of Pleasant Ridge. Also attending the luncheon was Mrs. Smart's mother, Mrs. M. J. Cole of Ferndale.

MISS DAVEY

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Davery of Ridgeland avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn E. Davery to Robert Ritzman. He is the son of Mrs. James Anweiler of Morenci and Mr. Rex Ritzman of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Davery is a graduate of Baldwin High school, attended Albion college, and is now beginning her junior year at Ypsilanti college.

Her fiance is a senior student at Albion college, where he is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Teachers Club To Hear Guest Speaker

Doctor Marie Rasey will speak to the Birmingham Teachers' club on October 2, at Baldwin High school, at 3:45 p.m., in room 101.

Dr. Rasey obtained her doctorate from the University of Michigan, and has been associated with the Detroit Public schools and Wayne university for thirty years. She studied with Adler in Vienna, Austria.

Dr. Rasey is the author of two books, "Toward Maturity" and "This Is Teaching". At the present time she is collaborating with Dr. E. C. Kelley on a book concerned with the major things known about human organisms and a relationship to teaching.

At the present time, Dr. Rasey is in her home, a school for children who are considered superior in intelligence, but have suffered a brain injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearsall of Drayton Plains, Mich., formerly of Birmingham and Pontiac, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary this Sunday, October first.

Mr. Pearsall was born May 11, 1873, in Bloomfield Township and is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Pearsall.

He recalls many an interesting chat with the late Senator James Couzens, when he was superintendent at the Wabek Farms. Later he worked at the old Bugby Factory and then Pontiac Motors, where he retired about seven years ago. He has spent all of his life in Oakland County.

Five bridal showers were among the recent parties honoring Miss Jean May Sprague of Big Beaver road, preceding her September 16 marriage to James W. Graham of Birmingham.

On August 24, she was feted at a linen shower given by Mrs. J. E. Tweedie and her daughter, Mrs. Alton McCas of Park street.

A neighborhood miscellaneous shower was hosted by Mrs. Gordon Johnston of Big Beaver road and Mrs. George Osborne, a sister of the bridegroom, on August 25.

Co-hostesses for an August 28 fair were Miss Fern Weber and Mrs. Ruth Sae, given in the See home on Williams Lake. On August 31, Mrs. James Wade and her daughter, Mrs. William Wilfang honored the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower in the Maple road home of Mrs. Wade.

Miss Sprague was also the guest of honor at a party of September 9, given in the Pontiac home of Mrs. Helen McLeod.

MRS. LILLIE WALKER PEAR SALL was born March 22, 1879 in Dallas, Tex., and is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Walker.

At the age of five years, Mrs. Pearsall recalls traveling to Michigan in a covered wagon and with her parents, settling near Leonard, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearsall were married on October 4, 1900, in Windsor, Ontario. They have one daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Gay Hayes and two grandchildren, James R. Toles and Barbara Haynes, all of Orendorf.

Friends and relatives are invited by the couple to attend an open house Sunday afternoon and evening in their home at 3179 Warren drive in Drayton Plains.

The world's oldest town, Azad, Spain, has maintained its identity not name for about 3,000 years.
