CLUB NOTES

Chi Omega Alumnae
The Chi Omega alumnae group will meet tomorrow, September 8, for a 1:30 p.m. luncheon at the home of Mrs. David Bordon at 13144 Balfour road in Huntington Woods. The committee in charge of the affair includes Mrs. Lawrence Keltz of Birmingham and Mrs. Robert Page of Royal Oak. A report will be given on last June's convention at White Sulphur Springs, West Va., and Mrs. Glen Coulter of Grosse Pointe will be the speaker. All new members are invited to meet. Reservations with Mrs. Fredrick Sevin of Fairfax road, Midwest 4-2893.

U of M Alumnae
The University of Michigan alumnae group's board members were entertained last Friday at the Glenary road home of their new president, Mrs. Edson Pool. Members of the board in attendance were: Mrs. Edward Codner, Mrs. Gordon Davis, Mrs. G. W. Walker, Jr., Mrs. Hobart Andreae, Mrs. Robert Kohr, Mrs. Walter Powers, Mrs. S. M. Brun, Mrs. Owen Hendren and Mrs. Lewis Dibble.

AAUW Children's Theater
The Children's Theater group of the AAUW held its second afternoon of plays on Tuesday, September 5, at the Community House. There are some parts yet to be cast for their first production, "The Broken Arrowhead", a play about an ancient Indian tribe. Anyone is eligible to participate in the theater group, whether an AAUW member or not.

Senior Activities Group
The Senior Activities Group will open its third year with a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller on 4209 Berkshire road, one block south of 14 Mile road and one-half block east of Woodward avenue. The picnic will be held Monday, September 11, at 1:30 p.m. Each member is asked to bring his own sandwiches. For transportation and reservations, members should call Mrs. C. V. Hemstreet.

Carol Smith Becomes Bride Of Pennsylvania Doctor

Miss Carol Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Reid Smith of Buckingham road, changed her marriage vows last Saturday afternoon with Dr. Wilton Allen Doane, son of Dr. and satins. Tiny seed pearls were embroidered on the collar and repeated on the points of her long sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was caught in a matching cap of Chantilly lace edged with pearls, and she carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Miss Smith's three attendants were gowned alike in orchid tissue falls frocks, fashioned with portrait necklines, fitted bodices and full skirts. They wore matching crownless hats and carried crescent arrangements of deep red gladioli.

MISS MARY KAY SMITH attended her sister as maid of honor, with Miss Sylvia Doane, sister of the bridegroom, and her brother, P. McArdle of Highland Park, Ill., as bridesmaid.

FOLLOWING THE CEREMONY, a reception was held in the bride's home on Buckingham road, for which Mrs. Smith selected a dusty rose chiffon gown accented by dubonnet accessories and an orchid corsage.

Before Dr. and Mrs. Doane left by plane on their wedding trip to Martha's Vineyard, Mass., the bride donned a navy blue gabardine suit with deep red and navy accessories and a corsage of deep red glanellias.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Philadelphia.

MRS. WILTON A. DOANE

Mrs. John H. Doane of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

The double ring ceremony was read at three o'clock by the Rev. W. Glen Harris in the First Presbyterian church, before an altar banked by white candelabra, floral arrangements and palms.

THE BRIDE wore a princess-style gown of imported Chantilly lace with nylon tulle panels over

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan of Knox street have just returned from Fort Benton, Mont., where they operated a ranch some years ago. They found their prairie neighbors scattered and town friends rather few. They also called on western friends in Great Falls and Helena, Mont., and returned home by way of Virginia City and the Black Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. David MacMillan of W. Frank street returned this week from a trip through Kansas, Wyoming and the Colorado Rockies. While in Colorado they visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sammon, who moved from Birmingham a short time ago, and now have eight cottages in Estes Park. They had an evening of canasta and refreshments and spent the night over one of the cottages, and departed in the morning going on Trail Ridge on top of the mountains and around by Granby and Idaho Springs back to Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson said they would like to welcome more visitors from Birmingham, they had one other family from here during the summer, and Mrs. Allen of Townsend street. While in Colorado Mr. and Mrs. MacMillan made their headquarters with his cousin, Samuel MacMillan, and visited points of interest in Denver.

A sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Heiserman, gave the rehearsal dinner honoring Miss Gertrude Rogerson and Forrest Earl Fox, in her Chesterfield road home, last Thursday evening, preceding their Friday evening marriage.

Miss Barbara Bertling of Ardmore drive will return this week from Hamilton, Ontario, where she has been the guest of Miss Patricia Robinson, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Reid Smith of Buckingham road wore hosts last Friday evening for the rehearsal dinner honoring their daughter and her fiancé, Miss Carol Jean Smith and Dr. Wilton A. Doane. The dinner was held at Devon Gables, preceding the couple's Saturday marriage.

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Doane, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., gave a breakfast last Saturday morning at the Sheraton Hotel, honoring their son, Dr. Wilton A. Doane and Miss Carol Jean Smith, who became their daughter-in-law in a three o'clock ceremony that afternoon.

Republican Women To Give Reception

Mr. Frederick M. Alger, Jr., secretary of State and Republican candidate for governor, will be the guest of honor with the Republican candidates for Oakland county at a reception and tea, given at the home of Mrs. Ralph Cook on Pine crest drive in Ferndale, on Saturday, September 9, from 3:00 until 6:00 p.m.

Mrs. Cook will have the assistance of Mrs. H. Norton Pearl, who is the chairman in charge of all activities for the "Alger or Governor clubs" in Oakland county and Michigan.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

A bachelor dinner honoring Robert A. Hawkins was given Tuesday evening by Robert L. Jessup and Carl T. Blauman in the Jessup home on Hanna street, preceding his September 9 marriage to Miss Nancy Lou Chipman of Boyne City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison of Marquette, Mich., are here for a two week's visit with their son-in-law and daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul William Dutton, and young Paul of Park street.

Mrs. Robert H. Skillman of "Patriot Farm" on Hickory Grove road has as her house guests, Mrs. Fred Tolle of Omaha, Neb., and a sister, Mrs. Katherine P. Tolle of San Francisco. On Tuesday, Mrs. Skillman honored her guests at a bridge luncheon in her home for twelve guests.

October 7 Rites Planned by Couple

Mr. and Mrs. James Wade of W. Maple road announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Alice to Verne Dale Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parsons of Bates street.

Both are graduates of Baldwin High School. The wedding is being planned for October 7, with the service to be read by the Rev. W. Glen Harris in the First Presbyterian church.
