

A.A.U.W. Book Sale To Be October 16-21

The Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women announced that their twenty-third annual book sale will be held in the lobby of the Detroit Edison building for the week of October 16 through 21.

Mrs. Gilbert Govt, general chairman of the sale remarked, "Although the primary purpose of the sale is for the support of our organization's study grants, the sale is also an important service to the community as a whole.

The A.A.U.W. will accept donations of all types of books, monthly magazines, music, records, pictures and toys for this project. Collections are arranged at any time by Mrs. Carl B. Marr, Mrs. Glenn A. Kyker in Birmingham and Mrs. Edson Stevens in Franklin Village.

Candlelight Rites Read By Bridegroom's Brother

Kirk-in-the-Hills was the scene of an eight o'clock ceremony on September first which united in marriage Miss Gertrude Rogerson of Furdy street and Ernest Earl Fox of Chesterfield road.

She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Rogerson and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Catherine Fox of Kenwood court.

The Rev. Sinclair Tebo, brother of the bridegroom, assisted by Dr. Joseph Vance, officiated in the double ring, candlelight ceremony.

MISS ROGERSON wore a candlelight gown, fashioned with a stand-up collar, fitted bodice trimmed with tiny buttons, long sleeves with a chapel train.

Her finger-tip veil fell from a candlelight tulle headdress edged in seed pearls and she carried a spray bouquet of white roses with lily.

As her maid of honor, Miss Marie Stauffer of Royal Oak was gowned in a powder blue faille and tulle frock with fitted bodice and full skirt. Completing the ensemble were her elbow-length sleeves and blue faille hat. Her spray bouquet was of pink roses.

MISS LINDA HEISERMAN, young niece of the bridegroom, attended as flower girl and wore a frock of pale pink organza, complimented by pale pink slippers and a colonial nosegay of pink roses with white baby chrysanthemums.

Thomas Fox of Detroit served his brother as best man and two nephews of the bridegroom, Stanley George Boynton, Jr. and Sinclair Martin Boynton of Birmingham, seated the guests.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, at

MRS. FORREST E. FOX the Kenwood court home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley George Boynton, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

FOR THE WEDDING and reception, Mrs. Fox selected a soft rose crepe gown with lace collar, a matching velvet hat and deep rose-colored orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec, the new Mrs. Fox donned a brown checked wool suit with brown accessories and the corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

When they return, Mr. and Mrs. Fox will make their home on East Lincoln road.

Nuptials Solemnized in Late Afternoon Ceremony

Escorted down the aisle by her mother, Miss Mary Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Bull of Linden road, was given in marriage to Earl Howard Morgan, in a 5:30 p.m. ceremony read by the Rev. Lawrence W. Pearson last Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Morgan of Queen Annen, Maryland.

THE BRIDE wore a princess style gown of ivory satin, fashioned with an illusion yoke, bertha and peplum trimmed with seed pearls which were repeated on her long pointed sleeves. Her finger-tip illusion veil was caught in a satin half-hat trimmed with orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of white spray orchids.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Robert W. Hicks of Indianapolis, Ind., served as matron of honor. A matching lace cap-sleeved jacket covered her strapless blue satin gown, accented by a floral headpiece and a cascade bouquet of buff beige chrysanthemums.

THE BRIDESMAID, a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Eloise B. Morgan of Queen Anne, Md., wore an ensemble identical to that of the honor matron.

Horace M. Morgan of Queen Anne attended his son as best man and the ushers included G. Neal Chaires of Queen Anne, Elver T. Foxson of Elizabeth, N. J., John D. Coursey of Grasonville, Md., Reginald Gibson of Queen Anne and Dale Wichart of Baltimore, Md.

A reception followed at the Linden road home of the bride, for which Mrs. Bull wore a cocoa lace gown with dark brown accessories and a green orchid corsage, while the bridegroom's mother selected a gown of aqua crepe with matching hat and orchid corsage.

THE YOUNG Mrs. Nelson donned a black and red check suit with black accessories for her wedding trip to Canada.

The couple will reside in Queen Anne, Md., upon their return.

K. B. Olsons Have "Ball Game" Party

The K. B. Olsons entertained last Friday at a miniature baseball game held in the spacious recreation room of their home on Avon road.

Some sensational plays were made by the fielders and the ladies showed by their skill that they could handle the pitching assignment as well as the men.

The guest list for the party included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coryell, Mr. and Mrs. Manly Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Olson.

WITH THE Collegians

Miss Marilyn Howlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Howlett of Chesterfield road, left Wednesday for Tucson, Ariz., where she will begin her freshman year at the University of Arizona at Tucson. She was a June graduate of Kingswood school, Cranbrook.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding and following reception at the Oakland Hills Country club, Mrs. Nelson selected a rose crepe gown with matching hat and tulle-trimmed tulle corsage, while Mrs. Nair chose a grey lace frock with matching hat and red rose corsage.

For her wedding trip, the young Mrs. Nair donned a raspberry colored suit with beige accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Custom Suits . . .

Prices will go up on all Custom Suits at midnight, September 11.

If you need a new suit, and like custom tailoring, be sure and select your fabric before the price increase.

We will be happy to meet anyone in the evening, or next Sunday, if such time is more convenient for you.

Our present selection of more than 1000 swatches of suitings will be cut down as wool becomes scarcer. Select your suit now while the selection is large and prices are lower. Prices from $70 to $130.

Fathers To Honor Daughters at Party

Among the reservations being made daily for the annual Fathers' and Daughters' party of The Retreat club, to be held Saturday, September 9 are the names of several local residents.

Ernest A. Jones will return from Los Angeles in time to take his daughter, Christine to the luncheon. Ray E. Lawlor will have Anne and Sally Lawlor as his guests and John C. L. Cowen will be accompanied by Nancy Hayette.

The affair will get under way promptly at 12 o'clock noon, with strolling musicians, games and imported gifts for all the young guests.

High Noon Rites Solemnized in Holy Name Church

The recently married Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown Nair, Jr., will return from a motor trip through Pennsylvania to make their home in Austin, Tex., where he is a student at the University of Texas.

The couple repeated their marriage vows in a high noon ceremony.

MRS. FRANK B. NAIR, JR. money read by the Rev. Joseph Kress in Holy Name church on September 2.

Miss Nancy Ann Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Nelson of Riverside drive, the bride and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Nair of Wildenere avenue in Detroit.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of imported chantilly lace over ivory satin with a Peter Pan collar, long pointed sleeves and a chapel train. Her three-tiered veil fell from a lace covered satin cap and crown and she carried an arrangement of white roses and asters centered with an orchid.

Miss Lorraine Rechert of Bloomfield Hills attended the bride as maid of honor. Her aqua tulle and satin gown was fashioned with short sleeves, lace mitts and a full skirt. Her tiny matching hat of the tulle was trimmed with a matching satin bow and she carried a bouquet of red asters and gladioli.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Miss Virginia Nair of Detroit, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Maren Nelson, sister of the bride and Miss Patricia Donnelly of Birmingham, wore champagne colored gowns of the same style as the honor maid's, and they carried arrangements of bronze asters and gladioli.

A brother of the bridegroom, James R. Nair of Detroit served as best man and seating the guests were Frank Melusak of Detroit, Jack Thorsen of Detroit and Donald Nelson, brother of the bride.

Wed in New York

MRS. CHARLES F. HUTAFF

The marriage of Miss Louise Marjorie Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Earl M. Otterman of Birmingham and Crawfordville, Ind., and the late Mr. Otterman, to Charles Frederic Hutaff took place Tuesday, August 29. He is the son of Mrs. Frederic H. Hutaff of Bronxville, N. Y., and the late Mr. Hutaff.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Franklin Schindell, in the Marble Collegiate church on Fifth avenue at Twenty-Ninth street, in New York City.

THE BRIDE wore an Adrian suit of blue-grey wool with a matching hat and her flowers were white orchids.

Attending the couple were Miss Jean Cordine of New York City, as maid of honor and Cecil F. Denton of New York City and Bronxville was best man.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will reside in Lakewood, Ohio.

The bride was graduated from Columbia university where she also received her master of arts degree. She is a home economist appearing on television shows, and during the last war, was a captain in the W.A.C.

THE BRIDE wore an Adrian suit of blue-grey wool with a matching hat and her flowers were white orchids.

Attending the couple were Miss Jean Cordine of New York City, as maid of honor and Cecil F. Denton of New York City and Bronxville was best man.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will reside in Lakewood, Ohio.

The bride was graduated from Columbia university where she also received her master of arts degree. She is a home economist appearing on television shows, and during the last war, was a captain in the W.A.C.

THE BRIDE wore an Adrian suit of blue-grey wool with a matching hat and her flowers were white orchids.

Attending the couple were Miss Jean Cordine of New York City, as maid of honor and Cecil F. Denton of New York City and Bronxville was best man.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will reside in Lakewood, Ohio.

The bride was graduated from Columbia university where she also received her master of arts degree. She is a home economist appearing on television shows, and during the last war, was a captain in the W.A.C.

THE BRIDE wore an Adrian suit of blue-grey wool with a matching hat and her flowers were white orchids.

Attending the couple were Miss Jean Cordine of New York City, as maid of honor and Cecil F. Denton of New York City and Bronxville was best man.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will reside in Lakewood, Ohio.

The bride was graduated from Columbia university where she also received her master of arts degree. She is a home economist appearing on television shows, and during the last war, was a captain in the W.A.C.

RE-ELECT
Slate Representative
Howard R. Estes
★ REPUBLICAN ★

September 7, 1950 THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC Page 5

AWNINGS

DON'T WAIT UNTIL THE SPRING RUSH GET AN ESTIMATE ORDER NOW

Allen Lincoln Awning Co.
AL CHICK MI 4-0357

ANNUAL HALF-PRICE SALE!

Dorothy Gray
Cleansing Creams

Regularly . . . $2
Each
Regular $4 size now $2

DRY-SKIN CLEANSER (Cream 687)
SALON COLD CREAM (For normal or young skin)
CLEANSING CREAM (Lip/lip/lip) (for oily skin)
$3.50 size for $2
All prices plus tax

Limited Time Only
This opportunity comes only once a year. So stock up and save!

Wilson Drug
WOODWARD AT MAPLE

Quality . . . is found in a lot of things

It's in the good appearance of your clothes after you've used them several seasons.

It's in the pleasure you get when people tell you "how becoming your costume is."

It's also in the secure knowledge that what you buy here today won't be "on sale" or "specially purchased" tomorrow.

For 25 YEARS—we've been selling QUALITY—branded, beloved FASHIONS . . .

For Example:
Mouton Trimmed Coats
Fleece or Tweed in Flattering Beige.

EXCEPTIONAL VALUE!
At $49.95

HOUSE OF Edrlich FASHION

davidson's
Apparel Shops Incorporated
WOODWARD AVENUE, BIRMINGHAM
TELEPHONE MIDWEST 4-7200

AUTUMN the ideal time to visit EUROPE

Arrangements Made BY AIR and SEA

Birmingham Travel Service
In the Campbell Village Store Phone MI 4-5590

Little Folks' CORDUROY

Whether your needs are for the carriage set, the run-about or the pre-school age—you'll welcome these washable, vat-dyed Juilliard and Compton corduroys.

Crawlers, overalls, jumpers, skirts, slacks or matched sets are available in a range of new Autumn colors.

LITTLE FOLKS SHOP
175 W. Maple
There is only one "Little Folks Shop" in Birmingham

Tweeds for Fall . . .

Ladies' suits from finest imported and domestic tweeds—tailored to accentuate that slim, country-in-the-Fall look. Select your own style and trend. Domestic from $69.50. Imports mostly at $75.50.

Ladies' coats, with interlining, in domestic and Irish tweeds. All wool, and tailored with a swagger—with exquisite detail. You select your own style and tweed. Domestic from $85. Imports from $90.

Ladies' coats in finest camel hair or Pure Cashmere. Casual styles. Camel hair from $125. Cashmeres at $160 and $165.

Ladies' jackets, hats and handbags—all made up to match or correlate with your suit or coat.

Tweed Yardage can be obtained, all pre-shrunk, 51-52 inches wide, at $10.50, $11.50 and $12.00 the yard. We are proud in presenting this exquisite group of tweeds, believing them to be as fine as are obtainable.

Campbell's Village Store
OPEN WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AND FRIDAY EVENING