Aikens-Snyder Nuptials Solemnized September First

Before the young Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Aikens left last Friday for their wedding trip to Charleston, S.C., Mrs. Aikens, the former Charlotte Ann Snyder, donned a light beige suit with red and dark brown accessories formed the full skirt.

Her finger length veil fell from a Juliet cap, edged in tiny orange blossoms and her complementing jewelry was a strand of pearls.

As her maid of honor, Miss Nancy H. Holmes of Lima, Ohio, was gowned in a ballerina-length frock of white lace, fashioned with a caped-sleeved fitted bodice and full skirt. Her white picture hat was trimmed with red velvet streamers and carried a strand of bouquet of red carnations with trailing ivy.

ATTIRED in frocks identical to that of the honor maid, were the bridesmaids, the Misses Mary Powers, Katherine Daeschner, Gretta, Seahorn and Barbara Adams, sister of the bridegroom, all of Birmingham.

Burton Allen Aikens III, served his brother as best man and seating the guests were William Aikens of Birmingham, Rolf G. Shyre of Old Greenwich, Conn. James E. Schiele of Clayton, Mo., Richard Wolfe of Oak Park, Ill., Charles Murray of Birmingham and Peter Enslin of Sappington, Mo.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding and following reception at the Orchard Lake Country club, Mrs. Snyder selected a grey chiffon gown with a rose floral hat and matching gloves while Mrs. Aikens chose a gown of blue lace and chiffon with ivory accessories.

MRS. ROBERT B. AIKENS and a corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder of Colonial court, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Allen Aikens, Jr., of Pierce street.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated in the three o'clock afternoon ceremony on September first in St. James Episcopal church.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, Miss Snyder was gowned in rose point lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a drop shoulder neckline and long sleeves and the cascading tiers of lace

A September ninth bride-elect, Miss Jo Ann Van Wagone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray D. Van Wagone of Abbey road, was honored at a dinner party given by Miss Barbara Hughes in her Bates street home and on Sunday evening, Miss Maggie Vose gave a supper party and luncheon shower at her home on біlenary road.

Miss Suzanne Hubbard and Miss Elizabeth Lind traveled to Louisville, Ky., last week, where they attended the Saturday marriage of their classmate, Miss Nina Whitney.

Miss Marilyn Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knight of west Lincoln road, returned last Sunday by plane, following a two-week vacation which she spent visiting friends and relatives in Bermuda and Massachusetts.

Miss Barbara Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver K. Kelley of Baldwin avenue arrived home this week aboard the S.S. "De-grasse", after a summer abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley were traveling to the Hotel Greenbrier at White Sulphur Springs on September 14, for a two week stay.

Mrs. W. D. Jardine of Brown street was called to Cincinnati, O., by the death of her mother. Motoring back with her was her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. S. Rhy, who will remain here for a few weeks visit.
