The sermon theme for the 11:00 a.m. morning worship service will be, "A Religion of Hope."
Also at 11:30 a.m. the church school section II will convene, including junior class 4, 5, 6 grades; primary class—3 and 4 grades; post-kindergarten—first grade, kindergarten—4 and 5 year olds; nursery II—3 year olds and nursery I—younger than 3 years.

Installation of the church school workers will be held at this time, with recognition also given to the college students. Dr. Leslie A. Bechtel, minister, will preach on the theme, "The Church—A School."
On September 11, a church school superintendent's association meeting will be held at the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church, for the purpose of reviewing the church school materials for the coming year.

A new feature of the church school of the Kirk-in-the-Hills, this year, will be a class for babies younger than three years. Mothers may leave their children

First Methodist
The Executive Board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church will meet at the church house on Wednesday morning, September 13, at 10 o'clock.

At 11:00 a.m. duplicate sessions for children of nursery age (2 and 3) and kindergarten (4 and 5) will be conducted. The Board of Education is anxious that parents keep their children in the same sessions each Sunday (either 9:30 or 11:00 a.m.), that confusion in enrollment will be avoided. The classes for adults meet during the 11:00 a.m. period.
The Senior Youth Fellowship will resume its Sunday evening activities at 7:00 p.m. in the church parlors on September 17. Jim Hildebrand and Roger Miller, directors of recreation, will lead the group. This will be followed by refreshments. The evening will close with a fellowship circle directed by Allyn Dove.
On September 24, a movie, "For All People," will furnish the basis for the discussion. A special Sacrificial Breakfast will be served to the youth as a preparation for the day, which is World Wide Communion Sunday. The evening fellowship will provide a question period on the meaning and value of Holy Communion.
A Workers' Conference will be held on Monday, September 18, at 8:00 p.m. in the church parlors for all members of the church school staff. Films pertaining to classroom activities and teacher-pupil relationship will be shown. During the last half of the conference, the staff will be divided into their respective departments for more personal consultation with the department directors.

Thirteen separate grades of instruction will include the Cradle department, through the Junior and Senior Bible divisions.
Those receiving attendance awards for the past year are as follows: Larry Hart, Richard Steiner, Charles and Barbara Talis, James and Tom Whaley, Karen and Kathy Kelley, Lodoon Thun, Mary Jane, Earl and Carolyn Roberts, John and Judy Kusk, Dan, Jim and Erich Booth, Mary Esther and Bill Seldon, Robert and Tom Blum, Douglas Ross, Ralph Flebig, Sara, Ruth and Ruth Hibbard, Martin and Howard Knorr, Douglas Waggener, Pauline Oliver, Margaret Brenner, and Richard Shaw.
The Junior Bible class offers young people of high school age an opportunity for Bible study. The fall term will begin with illustrated lectures and discussions on the first part of the Book of Genesis.
The teaching staff for the coming year includes: Mrs. Eric Booth, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. A. Somers, Miss Jean Dalquist, Mrs. Herman Flebig, Mrs. W. D. Brauner, Mrs. Gustave Chesna, Mrs. Russell Hibbard, Mrs. Otto Borchert, Mr. Walter Riedel, Mr. Paul Tietel, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gassaway.
