

The Birmingham Eccentric

To be without constant integrity is to place a stigma upon one... and how terrible it is to lose faith in the leadership of current days. A nation without leaders whose actions begot confidence is like being possessed by a rudderless ship.

MRS. HARRY BAILEY
Ballerina Gown Of Nylon Tulle Worn by Bride

Three o'clock was the time of the double ring ceremony that united in marriage Marilyn Mae Knight to Harry John Bailey.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Knight of West Lincoln and Harry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Bailey of Webster street.

The rites were read by Rev. Harold Towne on Saturday in St. James Episcopal Church.

The bride wore a Dresden figurine gown of white nylon tulle over satin, blended with delicate chantilly lace. The long sleeved, basque of lace was designed with a deeply rounded neckline and the lace etched its rose pattern in pointed godets into the ballerina fitted bouffant skirt of tulle.

Couple Celebrate 56th Anniversary
 Mr. and Mrs. John D. Peterson quietly celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary on April 2.

Mr. Peterson was for many years engaged in the fur business in Detroit, having formerly been a fur trader with the Hudson Bay Company. He traveled up to the Alaska border in 1886, by snow shoe and by dog sled.

Mrs. Peterson was Robena Hill of Detroit.

They have resided here since 1943 at the home of their son-in-law, the late Dr. John H. Gordon.

ROBERT RICHARDSON, brother-in-law of the groom served as best man. Richard Bailey, brother of the groom, Harrison Cornell and Robert Koonz acted as groomsmen. For the reception held in the church parlors after the ceremony, the bride's mother chose a dress of cornflower blue crepe with a tulle skirt. With this she wore a mauve straw hat, white gloves and an orchid.

Mrs. Bailey's costume was a navy and white silk print. She completed this with a navy straw hat, white gloves and white rose corsage.

For traveling the bride selected a suit of fine gray checks, a navy and white straw hat, navy shoes and blouse, white gloves and the orchid from her bouquet.

The newlyweds will live at 1950 Holland street.

On Orchard Lake...

Here's "Winter Wonderland" at its best, but presently it will become a fair-land in Summer. Shielded by mature planting and the masonry wall fence, privacy can reign supreme. Swimming, sailing, fishing and skating can all be yours to command. Space details are:

Living room 18 x 25—has Thermopane picture, window looking out across the lake.
 Flagstone open terrace.
 Master bedroom, dressing room and bath.
 3 more bedrooms and bath.
 Maid's room.
 Dressing rooms for swimmers in the basement.
 118 feet of lake frontage.

Oaks, cedars, maples and fruit trees supplement the ivy-covered wall. For year 'round living, its comforts and conveniences are complete plus the special joy that living "on the lake" always holds.

May we show it to you today?
