

Nuptials Solemnized in Faith Lutheran Church

At a candlelight ceremony on Tuesday evening, April 10, in Faith Lutheran Church, East Jefferson avenue and Phillips, in Detroit, Grace Charlotte Eberly was married to Dr. Robert Frederic Ziegler.

The double ring rites were performed by the bride's brother-in-law, Rev. Gerd E. Heidmann of Toledo. He was assisted by Rev. Charles H. Lange. Miss Eberly chose a gown of traditional white satin, with a double Peter Pan collar and yoke of lace. There were lace inserts at the waist and the cuffs of the long sleeves were of lace. Her three-quarter length veil of French illusion fell from a lace headpiece brimmed with pearls. She carried a white orchid.

MARION EBERLY, sister of the bride and maid of honor wore lilac organza and carried a bouquet of violets and trailing ivy. The gowns and flowers of the bridesmaids Mrs. Gerd Heidmann of Toledo, Mrs. Roy Pretty and Mrs. Don LaSage were identical to that of the maid of honor. Earl Ziegler of Midland, served as best man. Roy and Russell Pretty and Don LaSage seated the guests.

Mrs. Eberly wore for her daughter's wedding a dress of dusty rose crepe and a corsage of violets and white camellias. Mrs. Ziegler chose hyacinth blue crepe and a corsage of violets and pink camellias.

After the reception, held at the American Turners club on East Jefferson, the couple left for a trip through the south. The bride was wearing a pink and grey checked suit with navy accessories. The newly-weds will live on Beach road, Birmingham.

MRS. CARL W. DRISCOLL

Louise Kelley Wed in South

At a 4 o'clock ceremony in Sherwood Presbyterian church, Columbus, Georgia, Miss Louise Lathrup Kelley was married to Carl William Driscoll.

For the double ring service which was read by the Rev. McKinley, Weaver the bride selected a Dresden figuring gown of white nylon tulle over gleaming satin. The basque was designed with a yoke of illusion which covered the shoulders. There were flowers applied at the bodice line and extended into the long sleeves. This floral applique also etched its attractive pattern into the bouffant skirt which fell to ankle length. Shirred net caught with orange blossoms at each side fashioned her bonnet which held her waist-length veil. Her bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white flowers centered with violets.

The bride was accompanied by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Kelley of Lathrup Village. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Driscoll of Dayton, Ohio.

The couple have an apartment in Columbus, near Fort Benning where the bridegroom is stationed.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Joann Marie Lockard to James Carl Phillips, Jr., is announced by Jo's parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lockard of East second street, Royal Oak.
