News About GIRL SCOUTS

With their profits from the recent cookie sale, the Brownies in this troop purchased a Girl Scout Handbook for each member. At their last meeting these Brownies had a special ceremony for Jean Deyo who is moving to New Jersey. Jean's mother and young brother Paul were guests. The treat was brought by Dana Vass.

Troop 31, Adams
These Brownies attended the Sportsman Show on April 7. They were accompanied by Mrs. S. A. Walker, Jr., Mrs. D. B. Macalpine and Mrs. J. J. Meyers.

Troop 31, Holy Name
Fifteen Girl Scouts from this troop recently visited the Detroit Art Institute. Mr. Page of the Institute planned a trip through the museum and accompanied the girls on their tour. These sixth graders are studying Japan and were especially interested in an exhibit of Japanese art. They also saw a fine display of Egyptian jewelry. Mr. Page explained how mummies were prepared and preserved. After a complete tour of the Institute they saw nature movies of State Parks and a Scandinavian puppet show. Mrs. J. H. Savage, Jr., Mrs. E. J. Racine and Mrs. George Zink accompanied the scouts.

Troop 33, Pierce
Scribe Betsy Carroll reports that the Girl Scouts in this troop made their nature book covers at their last meeting.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication. The party ended the following Thursday.

Really Washable Berry Deep-Tone Colors

... and you'll thrill at the depth and richness of these newest Deep-Tone colors. Even their names are exciting.

- Burgundy Red, Kings-Royal Blue
- Desert Gold, Shady-Oen Green
- Marschimo Red, Panther Black

Use these exquisite new colors just as they are or use them to create any one of hundreds of delightful let-down tints and intermixes.

The added washability in Berry Deep-Tones is the result of a revolutionary new process developed by Berry Brothers. Even cooking oils, cold cream, lipstick and grease can be washed right off these new finishes. The soft velvet sheen of these new Deep-Tones is also more resistant to marring and the development of shiny spots which have a tendency to occur in ordinary Deep-Tone finishes.

Use the striking new Berry Deep-Tones for walls and woodwork anywhere in your home. They will produce a smooth professional-looking finish in just one coat over practically any sealed surface.

Let us give you a demonstration of this remarkable new paint. Let us show you how easy it is to apply. Let us show you its beauty and prove its washability.
