IN A CRITICAL basketball game at Ferndale, Fort Huron's coach Reed McLaughlin ran out on the floor protesting a decision, but no indignant outraged fans or league members have combined to send a letter denouncing him. Coach Buchholz of the Mt. Clemens football team screamed and yelled, jumped up and down and rolled on the ground, and accused officials of not calling clipping on one of two key blocks made by Mac Booth and Bob Hardy when Charles Bahor ran 90 yards for a touchdown for Birmingham, tying up the game. But he is not condemned for that. The reserve basketball coach of East Detroit constantly heckled officials during both the reserve and varsity games here at Baldwin high school, and there is no criticism of him. WALNUT LAKE NEWS

By GENEVA STEVENS
MAYFAIR 6-2971

Mayfair 6-2904

Old brooms are needed by the Walnut Lake fire department for fighting grass fires. Please take them to the Walnut Lake grocery store.

The truck answered two calls this week. The first was to the Roy Fruehauf home on Middlebell rd. for an oil burner explosion and the other for a large grass fire on Bloomfield Glens road.

To call our truck phone MA 6-2904.

Travel Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bertram, who are spending the winter at Sarasota, Fla., were visited by three families from Walnut Lake recently. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hemmaway and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton La Motte and children and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wildeman and children. Henry, Jr., and Eddie, the Wildemans toured the state stopping to see friends in Fort Lauderdale, Clearwater Beach, Daytona Beach, Silver Springs, Orlando and St. Augustine. They stayed in the Indian village of Cherokee in North Carolina on their return through the Great Smoky Mts. Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer and children, Elaine, Jack and Denny have returned from a two week visit with relatives in North Carolina. They stopped in Williamsburg, and Charlottesville, Va., where they visited Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson.

Women's Club

The Women's club musical evening was well attended. Mrs. Robert Morris and Mrs. Mason Noble joined the club and guests were Mrs. Troy Martin, Mrs. Paul Barbour, Mrs. Amos K. Smith and Dorothy Phelps' mother, Mrs. Oscar Schultz of Detroit.

Mrs. Arne Maki and Mrs. John Peterson each received a corsage and the music was dedicated to them in recognition of their perfect attendance record. They have not missed a regular or special meeting since the founding of the club in February, 1948.

The dance committee of Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, Mrs. Dave Martin and Mrs. William Sloat said refreshments at the Spring Dance, April 28, will be smorgasbord style. Ronny Nightingale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nightingale, and his orchestra will play for the dancing.

The cancer pad group will meet at the school Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. A Red Cross nurse's aide course is being formed. For further details contact Mrs. Walter Christie.

The 1951 Scout campership committee, Mrs. Harry Maves, Mrs. Martin Wade and Mrs. Edward Smitz met Wednesday evening and began plans for choosing two girls to be the guests of the club at camp this summer.

Stork Shower

Sunday April 1, Mrs. Melvin Joritz and her sisters Margaret and Catherine Bertram gave a stork shower for Mrs. Walter Whitmer with 17 present.

Local People

Roland Walton celebrated his birthday last Friday with a family dinner party at his home. Mrs. Joseph Dingwall's mother, Mrs. Mark Weeks has returned to Fort Scott, Kan. after a busy week here, which included a trip to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoffman are in their new home on Putnam drive. Mr. and Mrs. Troy Martin and children, Sandra, Karen and Keith have purchased the home formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kolarian on Putnam drive. Martin is a carpenter contractor in Detroit.

Groups Active

Mrs. Parker Reebwell, Mrs. Arthur Kane, Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. Perry Graber and Mrs. C. M. Fellers of the Garden group spent Monday at the flower show. Bill Sloat represented the PTA at the organization's meeting for representatives of the Birmingham schools Wednesday. A Red Cross first aid class, sponsored by the PTA will be held at our school under the supervision of the Birmingham board of education. A trained teacher will conduct the course. The group met with Miss Frances Curtin, in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. Ira Weaver is local chairman. Classes will start next week.

Mrs. Graham Overgard and Mrs. Lee Giddings attended the United Nations conference at the West Bloomfield town hall Tuesday. The group sent a resolution to their congressmen in favor of sending grain to India.

The Inter-Lakes League of Women Voters will hold its annual meeting, Tuesday, April 17, at 10:30 a.m. in the Orchard Lake Community church. Election of officers, annual reports and a discussion of the proposed agenda for the coming year will take place.

Brownies

The Brownies of Troop 25 held their annual fashion show at their meeting Monday. The leaders, Mrs. Robert Schaula and Mrs. Woodrow Smith, were assisted by Mrs. Axel Nyberg and Mrs. Lee D. Hanson. Judith Karnes was hostess.

It was impossible to judge a winner from the group but by a series of pantomime presentations the girls themselves chose Kay Graber as the one deserving honorable mention. Troops 9 and 58 learned more steps for the dance that they will present at the Girl Scout fair on April 28 at the Community House. The rehearsal was held at the home of Mrs. Richard McKay.

Paul Foley Appointed Vice-President of Advertising Agency

Paul Foley, 1211 Willow Lane, has been appointed a vice-president of McManus, John & Adams, Inc., according to James R. Adams, 989 Kenneway, president of the advertising agency. The new vice-president will continue as account executive on the advertising of Pontiac Motor division of General Motors. Foley joined the agency in 1946 after overseas duty as news bureau chief for the Office of War Information in Istanbul, Turkey, and on the foreign staff of Associated Press.

Buy Water Pipe

The city has ordered additional six and eight inch pipe from the Gleaner Pipe and Foundry Co. for a water main installation on Sheffield from Mansfield to Melton and on Melton from Eton to Bradford.
