BOY SCOUTS

TROOP B-4, ADAMS

Trucks will be at Adams school at 9 a.m. Saturday to pick up waste paper collected by various troops units. Winning patrols will receive scout equipment and tickets to a Tiger game, according to Donald Anderson, drive chairman.

Jud Hundley, Life Scout, formerly of Westfield, N. J., has joined the troop as assistant scoutmaster to work on programing and advancements.

New to the troop committee is John M. Clark who will work with the quartermasters in checking troop equipment.

Mickey Hartkopf has been appointed quartermaster for the Explorers to work with Dick Snow on the trailer and equipment.

Assistant senior patrol leader John Sheriff will take charge of the troop scrapbook.

New scouts and patrols to which they are assigned are Raymond Hudson, Lone Wolf; Gerry Reynolds, Pioneer, and Tim Wheeler, Wolf Bear.

A district meeting in Royal Oak last week saw Birmingham Explorers voting to take part in a canoe trip down the Titabawassee river next month. They are also planning to tackle the Ashtabula river in June.

Chesterfield Street Improvement Desired By Local Realtor

In a letter to the city commission Gilbert C. Goode, Jr., of Benjamin and Stephens, Inc., asked city commission and plan commission approval for the proposed use and improvement of Chesterfield running north from Lincoln apr. approximately 430 feet.

He pointed out that his clients, Men L. Schinick and Seymour Dunitz, builders, would make the improvements at their own expense.

Commissioners felt they could take no action on the request and referred it to the city plan commission, for that group's information.

Buzz And The Off-Key Baritones

Reverend Lester of the church out on Hillsboro Road coaches his Young Players' Choir late Thursday afternoons—after high school basketball practice lets out.

Buzz Ellis pastures cows next to that church. Around 5 o'clock they make a lot of racket about wanting to go home. That made it kind of rough on the choir.

When Buzz learned what was going on he said to Reverend Lester: "I never get heard of a cow that could moo on key. So, I'll just move 'em in a little earlier..." This stumped me to thinking. Buzz doesn't go to that church. And he's a tone-deaf he couldn't carry a tune in a bucket!

From where I sit, you might say that Buzz didn't have much in common with those singers. But he doesn't divide folks into groups like his "wit" or "agin' your politics, your personal preference—the fact that you like a moderate glass of beer—mean nothing either way to Buzz. He's a real neighbor to everybody!
