TAG DAY DOLLARS bring them cheer: Birmingham MOMS club members Mrs. Helen Snyder (left) and Mrs. Percy Burnett visit Marvin Goodell and George Chatfield at Dearborn Veterans hospital. Goodell, an iron lung patient, and Chatfield, confined to his bed for seven years, are among the veterans visited each week by the MOMS and receive gifts from the club. Funds for this service are provided through the MOMS annual Tag Day, which this year will be held Saturday, Apr. 21, weather permitting.

Obituary Notices

MRS. JAMES EATON, 72, 276 East Brown, died Monday morning after an illness of five months. She was born in Alsace, France, on Nov. 19, 1878 and on July 19, 1906, was married to James A. Eaton in St. Louis, Mo. The family has lived in Birmingham since 1920.
Besides her husband, Mrs. Eaton is survived by a brother Anton Kropp of Duluth, Ia., and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Bohm of Dubuque and Mrs. Mary Bohm of Milwaukee, Wis.
Rosary services were held at the Bell funeral home Tuesday, with burial in Dubuque.

FRED W. TAYLOR, 73, who operated a barber shop in Birmingham for 35 years, died April 12 at the Green Lake Rest Haven after a long illness.
Besides his widow he is survived by a brother, Jay Taylor of Fishing and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Northrop of Flint.
Services were from the Manley Bailey funeral home Monday with burial in Greenwood cemetery.

MISS MARY A. SATTERLEE, 89, lifelong resident of the area, died Monday in St. Luke's hospital, Kansas City, Mo., after a long illness. She had gone to that city to make her home about five months ago.
Miss Satterlee was born on the family estate at East Long Lake and Adams road, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Satterlee, pioneer family of Bloomfield township. She was the last of her family.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Birmingham and had always taken a deep interest in church and civic affairs of the community. She was very active in Red Cross work during World Wars I and II.
The survivors are W. B. Satterlee, Richard Satterlee, James Satterlee and Mrs. E. M. Hetherington, nephews and niece, all of Kansas City.
Services are being held in that city April 19.

WILLIAM F. TIGHE, 67 of 439 Park street, died in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac, Tuesday evening after a short illness.
He was born in New York City on Feb. 10, 1884, and married Clara Noyes in Chicago on Nov. 23, 1918.

Mr. Tighe came to Birmingham from New York 15 years ago. For some time he was associated with the Durkee foods company as sales manager. He later became foods manufacturer's agent with offices in Detroit. He was a member of St. James Episcopal church.
He is survived by his widow; two daughters, Mrs. Donald H. Krushak of Bridgeport, Conn., and Miss Mary Tighe at home; a son, Lt. William F. Tighe of San Lorenzo, Calif.; and two grand-children, Kathleen and John of Bridgeport.
Services will be held from the Manley Bailey funeral home at 2 p.m. Friday with the Rev. Thomas Aldrich of St. James church officiating.

Gambling Pitfalls Shown by Magician

Several reasons for not playing cards with strangers were demonstrated by Claire Cummings, Detroit magician, at the April 11 meeting of the firemen's fund association.
Meeting in the city hall, Cummings demonstrated devices and tricks used by professional card players.

Lathrup Village News

Lathrup PTA
A three-speed record player has been purchased for the school by Lathrup PTA. Extensive work on the playground has been planned after which the equipment will be installed.
A first aid class is 30 persons are interested.
Founders day pot luck supper is scheduled for April 28 at the new high school. PTA council is sponsoring the event.

Writing Award
An initial award was bestowed upon Danforth Distel, son of the Frederick Distels of Bloomfield drive, when he was notified he was one of four students to win out of 4,000 entries in Michigan regional writing award contest. Dan also writes a column "On the Sidelines" in the "Cub" paper, published by University of Detroit high school.

Luncheon Shower
Mrs. C. C. Beach and Mrs. Nelson Kimberly were joint hostesses at a luncheon and shower Thursday, honoring Mrs. Robert Dymont, retiring president of Community church guild. The new president is Mrs. Harold Nash of Sunset boulevard. The annual budget was set at $5,000. Of that amount $2,000 will go to the church, the balance to be for missionary work.

Book Review
Mrs. Thomas Myers opened her home to Kiwanitees Thursday evening. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Andy Broad, Mrs. Leif Larson and Mrs. Nell Canfield. A book review "Near East Pamphlets" was part of the entertainment.
