

One of author Sir James M. Barrie's more humorous lines is discussed by members of the cast and the director of the St. Dunstan's Guild production of "The Admirable Crichton," to be presented at the Cranbrook Pavilion tomorrow and Saturday and again on April 27 and 28 at 9 p.m. Pictured above are Mrs. Jervis B. McMechan, Mrs. Otis C. Thompson, Marge Smith, Mrs. Anthony Ransdell, and Jervis B. McMechan, who is playing the title role of the perfect butler as well as directing the well-known comedy. Tickets for the production are available at Grinnell's record counter in Birmingham.

Musical Workshop Sponsored Here

The Birmingham Musicales is planning to sponsor a workshop group for men and women interested in making music an active hobby. The new organization will be called "The Birmingham Musicales Workshop" and membership will be open to residents of Birmingham and other communities in the area.

Prospective members, interested in working as part of a group with piano, woodwinds, strings or voice, may call Mrs. Blair Swartz, MI 4-5507 for further information. The first organizational meeting will be held April 30, at 7:30 p.m., at the Community House in the clinic room.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

good from every angle...
the Season Aire

What a smart way to spend the Spring... or any other season of the year! The suit that buttons up a neat torso, softly rounds your hips, flares your skirt ever so gently. The fabric is crease-resistant rayon that looks and acts like the finest worsted. Hand-finished buttonholes, too. In junior sizes 9 to 15 in a complete range of Spring colors.
