News About GIRL SCOUTS

The Annual Girl Scout Fair will be held at the Community House on April 28, from 9:30 to 5:30 p.m. Mrs. George Hoke, program chairman, made the announcement at the meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council on April 13 and said that the activities of the Girl Scouts of Birmingham will be presented to the people of the community. Each troop will have a display, and many troops will participate in a program which promises to be of interest.

Two members of the Birmingham Council, Mrs. John St. Clair and Mrs. Robert Reinhardt, were recently invited to Detroit to assist in planning the Valentine Trainers' Institute which Detroit presents each fall at Camp Holly. This institute covers the training of new leaders in the southeastern part of Michigan.

Mrs. James Abbott, President of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council, attended the Regional Presidents' meeting in Chicago on April 17 and 18.

A group of Girl Scout Leaders and board members went on a field trip on April 18 to Haven Hill Lodge at the Highland Recreation Area. After an outdoor lunch, the women followed the nature trails around Haven Hill Lake. The trip was planned by Mrs. William deBeauchien and Mrs. Robert Reinhardt.

Troop 18, Adams
Troop 18 is nearing completion of its second class rank. At the present time, these Scouts are busy learning knot tying and are making plans to start work on their outdoor badges. Julie Hoover, Mary Haidate and Patsy Vandling have been elected as new patrol leaders.

Troop 38, Adams
Two movies were shown at this troop's last meeting "Growth Industry" in technicolor was the story of the frozen food industry, and the second movie was a baseball story entitled, "The Making of a Yankee." The projector was operated by Charles Goddard, a sixth-grade student at Adams

Troop 4, Bloomfield Village
A musical program for their parents was presented by the Girl Scouts of Troop 4, at the Community House, on April 13. It was based on the work they did for their music appreciation badge and was performed in three parts: Opera, concerto and folk songs. In the opera group were Isabel MacDonald, Linda Marean, Penny Pierce, Connie Kellough and Jane Mohler. Judy Kauden, Kathy Matlock, Sylvia Jones and Sally Barr were in the concerto group and Annie Jean Adams, Liz Ingraham, Jean Spencer and Barbara Abbott were in the folk song group.

Customers' Corner

A few years ago we had quite a few complaints about the delay at our checkout stands.

We worked hard to solve this problem by increasing and improving the stands and training our checkers to do a more efficient job.

Has this effort paid off in your A&P?
Is there a minimum of delay at the checkout stand?

Our checkers strive constantly to be courteous, efficient and accurate.

If you have any suggestions that will help them improve our checkout service, please let us know. Please write:
