Lois Upplegar
Married Recently
To Murray Merrill

of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Upplegar of Emmons avenue, exchanged her marriage vows with Murray G. Merrill son of Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill of Detroit, before members of the immediate families.

The recent ceremony was read at 2 o'clock by Rev. Reginald Becker in the Ruth Shain Room of the Community House.

The bride wore a white suit and a matching hat. Her flowers were white carnations.

Her matron of honor and only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Ernest Meuse. She wore a suit in pastel pink with a hat to match and her flowers were iris.

Mrs. Upplegar wore navy with accessories in a foxt shade and Tailsman roses. Mrs. Merrill's outfit was all navy and she wore pink carnations.

The reception at the Community House followed immediately.

The couple are students at Wayne University and both plan to continue their studies there.

MRS. WILLIAM L. MORRIS

Bridal Attendants
Carry Cherry Red
Tulips to Altar

Cherry red tulips were carried by the attendants who preceded Barbara Jane Shipton to the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening for her marriage to William Lewis Morris of Detroit. The rites were read by Rev. Lawrence W. Pearson.

Miss Mary Lou Holdeman was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Elson Spangler and Miss June Retzlaff. Tiny Sally Shipton was the flower girl. Their strapless ballgown gowns were of white nylon net over pink tulle. Their shoes were cherry red. The cherry red theme was completed by tiny velvet bows of that shade scattered on the John Fredricks' veils of white net.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Shipton of Lake-side drive, chose for the 8 o'clock ceremony a gown of white tulle and nylon net with off the shoulder neckline, short sleeves, full skirt and a medium length train.

She wore elbow length tulle gloves, and a headpiece of shirred net from which fell her fingertip veil. She carried an informal arrangement of white tulips and lilies of the valley.

Harold O. Paul was best man and the ushers were Richard Weir and Joseph Lancaster.

A ballerina length dress of nylon tulle was the costume choice of the bride's mother.

A full length gown with crepe skirt and lace bodice of blue grey was selected by Mrs. Morris.

After a reception held in the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a flying trip to Mexico City, with the bride wearing a suit of light grey and yellow calfskin shoes and bag.

When they return they will reside at 21451 Sloan drive, Detroit.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. H. Morris and the late Dr. Morris of Port Huron, Mich.
