Betrothal Told At Open House

At an Open House on Sunday evening, the betrothal of Oneida M. Brown to Warren L. Dalley was revealed.

The bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Brown, were hosts to the affair at their home in Pontiac.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Dalley of Bates street.

A pink and white floral arrangement on the mantel with two pink hearts and gold letters reading, "Oneida and Warren" revealed the news to the guests.

The bride-elect wore a ballerina length dress of beige lace. Her corsage was an orchid. Mrs. Brown received her guests dressed in navy crepe and Mrs. Dalley wore a navy and white print. Each wore pink carnations.

Tentative plans are for an early fall wedding.
