

Cranbrook School Plans Annual Band Concert May 6

Cranbrook school's 17th Annual spring band concert will be held Sunday afternoon, May 6 at 4 p.m. at the school. Weather permitting, the concert will be held outdoors in the main quadrangle of the campus' athletic field. It will take place in the Assembly hall nearby. The concert will begin with the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner," followed by the "National Emblem March." Featured selections will be songs from "Kiss Me Kate" and "The Student Prince." In addition to these musical numbers, a cornet quartet and clarinet trio will round out the program.

The School Band, which is composed of over 200 students, is under the direction of Axel Magnusson, Jr. of the Cranbrook music department.

Baldwin Band Preparing for Annual Concert

BY RONNIE PHILLIPS

In the annual state band and orchestra festival at Ann Arbor Saturday, the Birmingham band received a second or an excellent rating. Now that the festival is over, the band will prepare for its annual concert May 8. Tickets can be obtained from any band member.

The 37 band members reported to the Ann Arbor high school auditorium at 9:30. Here the band, under the direction of Arnold W. Berndt, played three concert selections: "American Legion March" by Parker; "American Folk Rhapsody" by Grundman, the required selections for all class B bands; and "Das Pensionat," Von Suppe.

AFTER THE SELECTIONS, the band reported to the sight reading room. Here it was judged on ability to read at sight a march and overture. The director is given two minutes to look the music over and the band three minutes. Joseph Skornicka from Milwaukee, Wis.; Myron Russell, Ann Arbor; Oscar Anderson, Chicago; and Larry Teal, Detroit, were the four judges employed to judge all Class B bands.
