

Ford-Booth Rites Solemnized In Christ Church Cranbrook

Dorothy Ellen Booth and Horace Cankins Ford met at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook on Saturday at 4:30 o'clock to exchange their nuptial vows.

The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a white tulle gown of matching straw trimmed with velvet ribbons and veiling. Her flowers were Paeony violets encircled with dark green leaves.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Victor C. Cook, Elizabeth Lind, Joyce Wood, Jeanne Cadigan, of Amherst, Mass.; Selby Brown, of Rochester, N. Y. and Nancy Dodd, of East Orange, N. J. wore frocks styled like the honor attendants' in pale lavender.

Suzanna Sloane Ford, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl and David Lovmore Craig, nephew of the bride was the ring bearer.

FREDERICK SLOANE FORD, Jr. was his brother's best man. Frank McBride, David Jansen, Jack Hendrix, Harry Van Wormer, Frederick Hotelias, Thomas Miner, George Trumbull and Peter Booth acted as the guests.

Mrs. Booth chose for her daughter's wedding and reception a floor length gown of hydrangea blue chiffon, and a matching hat of chiffon and French tulle. She wore white orchids.

Mrs. Ford's lace gown was of a royal blue shade. With this she wore a shell pink off-the-face hat in starched lace. Her flowers were pink camellias.

Following a Florida honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Ford will reside on Harcourt road.

SALLY BOOTH and Mrs. Gordon Craig, their sister's attendants.

MRS. HORACE C. FORD

"Notbrook", home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Warren Scripps Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, of Windmill Pointe drive are the parents of the bridegroom.

Imported gardenia white satin and tulle fashioned her wedding gown which was distinguished by applied satin roses. Panels of tulle with more applied roses formed the bouffant skirt.

The bride's veil of silk illusion was held in place by a cloche of illusion and appliqued roses. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Customers' Corner

Courtesy doesn't add anything to the high quality or superior value of the food you buy at A&P.

But it is the ingredient that makes your shopping trip a pleasant experience rather than a tiresome task.

That is why the men and women who operate your A&P work hard not only to give you prompt and efficient service, but to be courteous and friendly, as well.

They know that even the pressures of rush-hour shopping are no excuse for rudeness.

If they ever fail to make your trip to A&P a pleasant one, they want to know about it. Please write:
