

News About GIRL SCOUTS

Birmingham Girl Scouts will present to their community the work they have done during the past year at the Annual Girl Scout Fair to be held on Saturday, April 28, at the Community House from 9:00 to 5:30 p.m. Mrs. John S. Clair, program chairman of the Fair, states that the Girl Scout and Brownies have been diligently at work to present a varied and interesting program which is scheduled to start at 4:00 p.m. Nancy Gilliam will be Mistress of Ceremonies. The Flag Ceremony is to be given by Troop 42 of Barham School, Troop 45, Quanton will sing Folk Songs, and Troop 46, Quanton, will do Folk Dances. There will be two dances by Troop 9, Walnut Lake, Barbara Oakley, Troop 2, Barham, will do a ballet dance with Brownies. Stephanie Smith, Troop 2 will have a Fashion Show, sponsored by Jacobson's, to feature clothes for teen-agers and Brownies. A first-aid demonstration will be enacted by Troop 48 of Quanton School.

Troop 49, Adams:
The Brownies in this troop are busy making sunbonnets to be worn in a skit they will do at the Girl Scout Fair. They will sing a ballad and do a square dance.

Troop 32, Barham:
Miss Elizabeth Lygn of Detroit recently opened her ceramic studio to the Girl Scouts in Troop 32. The Scouts have just earned their Ceramic Badge and were pleased to visit the workshop of a professional artist, Mrs. J. R. Fortune. Leader of this troop reports that their next project is the Outdoor Badge, and that they are planning many outdoor activities. At a recent meeting, seeds were planted in pots which will be transplanted outdoors later. An International Exhibit will be made at the Fair. Paper dolls, dressed in costumes will be attached to a map of the country they represent. These Scouts have been corresponding with pen-pals in European countries.

Troop 15, Pierce:
A field trip on April 21 to Greenfield Village and the Edison Museum was made by the Girl Scouts in this troop.
