Children's Hospital To See Puppeteer's Beebebrain Show
This Saturday afternoon, April 28, the Birmingham Puppeteers will give a show before a very special audience—the crippled youngsters at Children's Hospital, Paragarden. The group's new show "Beebebrain Goes West" performed with string marionettes, is the main part of the program.
The Puppeteers will be sponsored by the Venture Club of Detroit, a junior group of Soroptimists who raise funds for charitable purposes.
Introducing the show will be a portrait puppet of Bugs Bunny, operated by Mrs. Merrill Anderson. The characters in "Beebebrain Goes West" will be handled by Mrs. Charles Biscove, Mrs. Claude Urevig and Mrs. Calvin Dennison.
Following the play the children will see a special attraction, the trick marionettes built by Marguerite and James Scribner, also of Birmingham.
All the marionettes used in the Puppeteers' production are the original work of the group, which is a part of the Birmingham AAUW. Sets were designed by Mrs. James Siddall and Mrs. Jack Moore; script is by Mrs. Rodkey Craighead and Mrs. Charles Biscove, with direction by Mr. Craighead.
