"CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN" might well have been the idea of "Babe", two-year-old collie owned by Laura Colburn, 976 East Ruffner. "Babe" celebrated April Fool's day by presenting her young mistress with 12 pups, apparently one for each year of Laura's life. The youngsters were only a week old when this photo was taken.

New Cars Purchased For City Departments

Commissioners have approved the purchase of three new cars, one for the motor pool and two for the police department.

A six-cylinder Ford, to cost $392.49 plus the trade-in, is being purchased from Harold Turner, Inc.

North Chevrolet presented the low bid, $209 each, for two 1951 Chevrolets for the police department. These will replace two cars purchased last year.

Local Resident to Appear on TV Show

Leroy E. Kiefer, 1001 Willow Lane, of the Design committee of Detroit's 250th Birthday festival will present "The New Look for the Birthday Festival" on the Detroit Trust Company's television show Sunday, April 29 at 2:15 over WWJ-TV.

Kiefer will show drawings of the Theme Center Stage to be erected in Grand Circus Park for the presentation of entertainment every night during the peak of the Festival season, as well as sketches of decorations to be used in various other areas to help celebrate the anniversary.

For the past eight years he has headed the Product & Exhibit Design Studio which designs numerous GM products, accessories, exhibits and special equipment.

In desiring the Theme center stage for the Birthday festival, Kiefer and other members of the Design committee have planned a stage to accommodate as many as 80 persons, where local entertainers of all kinds can present a wide variety of programs.

Official Navy Film To Be Shown Legion

Official naval movies will be shown at the April 27 meeting of Charles Edwards Post 14, American Legion, at 8 p.m. The pictures have been secured for local showing by Commander Frank Davis, USN, (ret), of Birmingham.

An informal party was held recently to honor Chet MacMillan who has returned to active duty.

City Girl Is First YW Camp Registrant

Former camper Catherine Bemis of 2720 Yorkshire road, is the first local girl to register for the YWCA summer season at Camp Cavell.

Registration for new campers will open April 28 and may be made from 9 a.m. to noon at the YW office, 2230 Witherell, Detroit. Each prospective new camper must be accompanied by one of her parents when registering.
