Excitement is running high among the small fry of Birmingham over the new marionette show to be given Saturday morning at the Presbyterian church. The play "Beebebrain Goes West" is the work of the Birmingham Puppeteers of the American Association of University Women. Performances will be given at 10:00 a.m. and again at 11:00.

This western horse opera has entailed weeks of puppet making. Each marionette is a complex figure of wood, plastic wood, metal, cloth and leather. All seven characters were designed and constructed by the Puppeteer group. An original script was written by Mrs. Charles Bigelow and Mrs. Rodney Craighead.

Detective Beebebrain, who is hero of the Puppeteers' circus play last year has been summoned west by the Sheriff of Dry Gulch who needs help in capturing a dangerous r u a t l e r. Beebebrain teams up with Cicero, a talking horse, as his adventures begin.

Mrs. Claude Urevig, Mrs. Charles Bigelow and Mrs. Calvin Denton will handle the strings for the seven marionettes. Mrs.

AAUW Puppeteers To Give New Show

The meeting of Thursday March 29 was held in the ball room of the Michigan League. In the absence of the Regent, Mr. Robert Kober, the chapter report was read by Mrs. Kleintert, who nominated Mrs. Clarence Wacker for state director to fill the vacancy caused by the illness of Mrs. Paul Meiser. Mrs. Wacker was elected to the office unanimously.

Mrs. William De Graff, who heads the state committee on resolutions, presented four new resolutions to be voted upon. Luncheon was served in the Michigan Union.

Rodney Craighead will direct the show and Mrs. Donald Howarth will handle sound effects. A marionette announcer will be operated by Mrs. Merrill Anderson.

The Sarah Hunter Guild of the Presbyterian Church is sponsoring the production. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Six Birmingham Women Attend DAR Convention

The monthly meeting of Piety Hill chapter of D.A.R. will be held on Tuesday, April 10, at 2:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Norman Lyle. She will be assisted by Mrs. Clark Coulter, Mrs. Thomas Navarre, Mrs. Royal Pasquette, Mrs. H. Slevin and Mrs. Roy Stringer. The society will be addressed by a representative of the Department of the United States who will speak on immigration and naturalization.

Local Student Wins Second Place At DAR Conference

Marilyn Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of 1208 Villa Road, who was named winner of the Piety Hill chapter DAR Good Citizenship award last January, won second prize in the state Good Citizenship contest. The award was presented to her at the state DAR conference in Ann Arbor last Friday.

Her essay "What Americanism Means To Me" was so similar to the first winner's that the judges awarded a second prize for the prize time.
