

Ann Arbor Woman To Discuss Work Of Garden Clubs

Mrs. William Giegel of Ann Arbor will be the guest speaker at the Garden club meeting Monday, April 9, in the Community House. "What Women are Doing Through Garden Clubs" will be the topic of her talk, which will follow a short business meeting to begin at 1:30.

This is the first meeting of the Garden Club since joining the National Federation of Garden Clubs.

Tea will be served from a table decorated by Mrs. George Goodwin. Mrs. A. J. Holm, roadside improvement chairman, reminds all who wish to continue making Birmingham the beautiful crab apple city, to arrange with her for one or more trees for their garden.

Albion Romance Culminates in Wedding Saturday

A romance which began at Albion College culminated in a wedding at 7 o'clock Saturday.

Marilyn Davoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Davoy of Ridgedale road repeated her marriage vows to Robert Rex Ritzman, son of Mrs. James Onweller of Morenci, Mich. and Mr. Rex Ritzman of Chicago, Ill.

The Rev. Arnold Runkel performed the ceremony which took place in the First Methodist Church.

Marilyn chose for her nuptial a gown of white satin. The bodice was fitted and had buttons down the front. There was an edging of seed pearls on the tiny collar and on the points of her long sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap of net outlined in a design of white satin. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations.

ELIZABETH HANNA was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of aqua taffeta. The jacket had a mandarin neckline and long sleeves. Her cap was of the same material. She carried a cascade bouquet of Peardy glads centered with red roses.

Barbara Carrier, Mrs. Thomas Brehm and Mrs. Raymond Stevens were the bridesmaids and were gowned like the honor attendant. They carried cascade bouquets of Peardy glads.
