

Where They Go
Tax leaflets, "Your Taxes and Where They Go", were mailed Tuesday by the city to inform local residents how tax funds are spent in Birmingham. The 5,300 persons listed with the water department will receive the leaflets through the mail. Others may be obtained from the city clerk's and treasurer's office and the reception desk in the municipal building.

House Board Meets
Regular monthly meeting of the Birmingham Community House board of directors will be held Apr. 9.

Detroit Man Found Guilty on Charge Of Negl. Homicide

A Detroit man, Loren D. Worden, was found guilty in Pontiac circuit court Wednesday on a charge of negligent homicide in an automobile collision Dec. 25 which took the life of Mrs. Elizabeth Erickson, 1988 Cole. Worden was charged with failing to stop at the Crook-Hayward intersection in Troy township. Sentence will be made April 9.

Local Man Officer Of Building Group
Election of Covert Robertson, 1091 Lake Park, as vice-president of the North Woodward section has been announced by Frederick W. Gerhardt, president of the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit.

Detroit Edison Co. Award Given To Glenn Cole
One of five Detroit Edison Co. employees who received the Alex Dow award for meritorious service Saturday evening was Glenn Cole, 1179 Yorkshire.

COLEY, A METALLURGIST for the company, was honored for his leading part in a joint project which resulted in reduction of the dust which tends to gather on the tubes of stoker-fired boilers. The five men each received a citation, a gold lapel pin, an engraved watch and five shares of Detroit Edison stock.
