

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Stevens, 651 Wallace street visited their son Robert last week when he graduated from General Motors Institute in Flint.

Mrs. Les Warner, 1043 Glenhurst is leaving this week for Denver, Colo. to spend several months with her son, R. H. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Millar, 1571 Ruffner, have returned from Chicago where they met their son PFC Joseph, Jr. and a friend, Bill McDonald of AAF who were returning from Canyon, Tex. where they just completed a course at the State Teachers college. Mr. Millar and his friend will visit his parents for a week then go to Elgin Air Force Base, Ft. Walton, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Botsford of Franklin Village and Dr. and Mrs. George W. Casper of Detroit are spending this week at Indian Trail Lodge, Traverse City, while in the North they will visit North Port Point and Harbor Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Strand of North Adams returned last week by plane from a vacation trip to Seattle, Wash. and Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Charles Wier of Sarnia, Ont. and Miss M. A. Morrison of Los Angeles, Calif. were guests in the Paul Bell home last week. They were to attend their niece, Nancy's wedding.

Dr. M. Y. Ferguson and Miss Dorothy Young of Los Angeles, were guests at the Cavanaugh-Bell wedding on Friday. They are aunts of the bridegroom.

The Misses Barbara Parks, Villa road and Shelia Brooks, Hupp Cross road, returned this week from a week spent at Gracie Inn.

Polly Hitt Repeats Vows In Double Ring Ceremony

Pert Polly Hitt married Rankin Smith Henry in a double ring ceremony, Saturday evening at 7:30.

Rev. Harold E. Towne married

MRS. RANKIN HENRY

the young couple in the presence of 250 guests at St. James Episcopal church.

Polly Ann's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Douglas Hitt of Graceland road and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Henry of Glastonbury road, Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of point d'esprit over satin with a medium length train. A two inch lace edged ruffle outlined the neckline and topped the shoulder of the long sleeves. A tiny shirred cap banded with seed pearls held a finger tip veil of illusion and she carried a colonial bouquet of white button mums, rosebuds and ivy.

Barbara Hitt was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Audrey LaFrance, Joan Newnam and Joanne Olson. Little Lindy Rice, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The attendants were dressed identically in ballgown gowns of pale blue net over the same shade of tulle, tipped in at the waist with wide sashes of blue satin. Their satin slippers and pearl banded caps matched their blue sashes.

The maid of honor carried a colonial bouquet of pale yellow button mums, yellow rosebuds with a dash of grape hyacinth surrounded by a blue net ruffle. The bridesmaids' flowers were pale yellow button mums and rosebuds. Little Lindy Rice carried a miniature bouquet like those of the bridesmaids.

William Rice, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, performed the duties as best man and ushers were Robert Sheppard, Charles Allen and Rollin Gartner all of Detroit.

The bride's mother wore a dusty pink gown of chiffon over tulle, matching hat and shoes and long white gloves. She wore a corsage of rubrum lilies surrounded by white button mums.

Mrs. Henry was dressed in a gown of navy marquisette. She had navy accessories and white orchids.

A navy and red tie silk dress and navy accessories was the travel costume of the bride when they left for a Northern Michigan honeymoon, after which they will reside at 11742 Pinehurst, Detroit.

Plans Completed For Piety Hill Antique Show

Final plans were made and the list of exhibitors compiled for the First Annual Piety Hill Antique Show and Sale, last week when

Mr. Sam Yearley of Annyville, Pa. who is to manage the affair was in town as the guest of Mrs. Thomas E. McDonald, general chairman.

Among the list of antiquarians are two local dealers, the Thomtons and the Paveys. The Thomtons, who came here fourteen years ago from Beaver, Pa., specialize in Americana, particularly historical Staffordshire and primitive lighting fixtures, household utensils, copper, brass, iron, and pewter. They also have 18th century soft paste, which predated Staffordshire.

The Paveys who have been in Birmingham 19 years and who have attended all important sales in the country in the past 15 years specialize in furniture. They carry the finest examples of the cabinet making industry in America which date from the 17th century, or perhaps century through the 18th century.

IT HAS BEEN only in the last

20 years that people west of the Allegheny Mountains have become intelligent collectors. The preconceived idea of the novice is that antiques are found in barns and chicken coops; however, good furniture was ordered for the most prominent families of that era and those people still buy today.

If you don't want it, someone else does—sell it thru an Eccentric Classified Ad.

MRS. ROBERT J. CAVANAUGH

Nancy Bell Wed In Sister's Gown Of White Satin

Nancy Jean Bell met Robert James Cavanaugh at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock wearing the white satin gown which was worn by her sister, Virginia Ellen, when she married Thomas Richey in May 1943.

Guests of heirloom rose pointe lace were set in the V-neckline and a Juliet cap of the same lace held her long veil. She carried a spray arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Richey, as her sister's only attendant, wore a gown of white embroidered organza with a bolero jacket. Her small crownless hat of white forget-me-nots was trimmed on either side with tiny red velvet bows which matched the red carnations in her spray bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Bell of Redding road and her husband is the son of Mr. Hugh H. Cavanaugh and the late Mrs. Cavanaugh of Phoenix, Ariz.

Rev. William H. Mead read the single ring service in the presence of 250 guests.

Hugh Donald Cavanaugh of Detroit was his brother's best man and the guests were seated by Alfred Johnson of Pontiac, Hugh Hannerster of Clawson, Kenneth Hill of Berkeley and Wallace Robertson of Royal Oak.

Teal blue satin was the gown choice of Mrs. Bell with which she wore a corsage of rubrum lilies.

Mrs. O. H. McNairy, the groom's aunt from Jacksonville, Fla. wore dark beige crepe complemented by a corsage of peach tea roses.

604 Hudson avenue, Clawson will be the young couple's new home when they return from a honeymoon trip to Northern Canada. The bride was wearing a brown wool suit and matching accessories and the orchids from her bouquet.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

LUCKAGE STREET LEVEL

Special SCOTCH TARTAN

Plaid Commuter Bag

8.95

plus tax

A Regular 10.95 Value

Scotch-thrift priced and rayon plaid smart. A lightweight colorful carry-all for short trip needs. Top grain cowhide base, handles and binding. Zipper closing. Choice of authentic Clan plaids.

Jacobson's

Maple at Bates Birmingham

PARKING AREA FOR YOUR SHOPPING CONVENIENCE

Campus Corduroy

Autumn-bright new tones that mix and match . . .

Gold, red, rust, dark green, purple, navy . . . colors to steal the fall scene everywhere. Casually speaking, here's a threesome to form the basis of a wearable, double-duty wardrobe . . . limitless in matching and blending possibilities. Left: Back-belted fully-lined jacket in gold, red, rust, dark green. 12.95. Center: Flap pocket straight skirt, in purple, dark green, rust, gold, red. 5.95. Right: Moderately full skirt with dog-eared peaked pockets, in purple, dark green, rust, navy. 7.95. All in sizes 10 to 18.

SPORT SHOP STREET LEVEL

Jacobson's

Maple at Bates Birmingham

Jacobson's

Maple at Bates Birmingham

CAPTIVATING! SYMPHONY SHADES

BEAUTY-SHEER . . . NEWLY-PRICED BELLE SHARMEER leg-sized stockings

• OVERTURE • MELLONTONE • LILT • SWEET CHORD • CADENCE

At first glance, you'd think Belle Sharmeer had borrowed all the lovely hazy Autumn tones and spun them into sheer, misty, proportioned-to-you thinnest nylons. But each exciting symphony shade has its own burnished beauty . . . each frosty, smoky or spicy nearly-invisible-film of yarn is designed to complement the fall's wardrobe color-spectrum: beige-taupe tints, charcoal-greys, browns, greens, plum wines, blues, navy and black.

EXTRA SHEER, 1.95
Box of 3 pr., 5.65

WALKING SHEER, 1.35
Box of 3 pr., 3.95

SHEER, 1.65
Box of 3 pr., 4.75

HOSIERY STREET LEVEL

DORMITORY TRIO FOR SLEEP AND LOUNGE

Robe and Pajama Match-Mates

EVELYN PEARSON tailors a travel-trio of washable rayon crepe

There's nothing so easy to travel with or to lounge in ground the dormitory than these matching robes and pajamas. The pajamas, cut bell-boy style with large white pearlized buttons, are roomy and comfortable for sleeping; the robes, piped with white, are easy to wear for relaxing or studying. Red, aqua or navy. Sizes 10 to 20.

Jacobson's

INTIMATE APPAREL PARKING LEVEL

Pajamas, 8.95
Shortie Robe, 8.95
Long Robe, 10.95