Hillsdale College Students Repeat Marriage Vows

Two former Hillsdale College students, Adah Marjorie Allen and William L. Rieker stood before the altar of the First Methodist double ring rites at 3 o'clock in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Allen of 931 Ridgevale, wore for her wedding, a gown of white lace over satin. It was fashioned with long sleeves and buttons up the front to a small pointed collar. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a cap of shirred net and horsehair. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and orchids.

The attendants, the bride's sisters Mrs. John E. Wilson and Mrs. Walter L. Anderson, wore gowns of unadorned white organza over green taffeta. They carried arrangements of lavender mums and pink roses.

The bridegroom, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rieker of Danville, Ill., asked his brother, John Rieker to be his best man.

The ushers were Charles and Louis Rieker, and Robert Meyer.

Mrs. Allen wore for her daughter's wedding, a street length dress of aqua lace and crepe. Her accessories were fuchsia and her corsage was white.

A reception followed the ceremony in the parlors of the church after which the young couple left on a 10-day trip along Lake Michigan. The bride was wearing a suit in a toast shade, brown accessories, and the orchids from her bouquet.

After September 1, the newly weds will be at home in Chicago where the groom will continue his studies at McCormick Theological school.

More Exhibitors Named To Piety Hill Show

A few months ago, Coronet magazine ran an article about antiques on the popular theme of "A Treasure in Your Attic" in which they encouraged finding out what your heirlooms are and of what historical interest they are.

The magazine, "Antiques" was given as a source of reference. The result of this was thousands of queries above the normal number. Two things were indicated: first, a widespread interest in antiques; secondly, an almost equal ignorance of them.

The Piety Hill Antique Show and Sale, to be held October 3, 4, 5, and 6 will afford an excellent opportunity to learn the antiquities of all types through talking with the best dealers in each type.
