BETTIE HYMAN (TOTI) will be seen as Jan Lupton in "Over Twenty-One," the season closer at Will-O-Way Playhouse. Bettie is a graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York City and was tutored by Philip Loeb. She has done stock work in Westchester County, N.Y., Los Angeles, Calif. and spent last winter with the Erie Playhouse. Last season at Will-O-Way Bettie was seen in "Two Blind Mice," "George Washington Slept Here" and "Harvey." "Over Twenty-One," a scintillating comedy by Ruth Gordon, opening August 28, for a two week run, is the story of a famous Hollywood screen writer and her equally famous husband who is a newspaper editor. He leaves the paper to join the army and is sent to officers candidate school. Many problems befall this young couple who spend 90 days in a motel. In the cast are Robert Bryson, the newspaper man and his wife, played by Bettie Wright. Others are Gerald Harrington, Richard Davies, Barney O'Rourke, Loree Carmich, Janet Baker and Charles Yager.

Summer Theater Ends Activities

Last week the Birmingham Summer Radio Theater wound up its summer season with the performance of "Zelda" by Barry Graham.

Heard in the cast of "Zelda" were Mary Jane Clark, Roger Miller, Wally Hirsch, Susan McDonald, Joan Sweeting, Jim Taup, Felix Charley, Dave Murphy, Linda Maureen, and Penny Pierce.

Palmer Bolinger and F. G. McGinnis did a fine job with the sound effects. Dick Wilson and Bob Ketchum had charge of the music, and Dave Gibbons directed the show. Dave, who has directed many of the plays this summer, shows great talent in the field of directing.

All the members of the Radio Theater have worked hard and have shown steady improvement through the summer weeks, and now hope to turn in a professional performance of anything they attempt.

The Summer Radio Theater ended their activities this season with a field trip to see Cinderella Week-End TV program and tour of the Detroit News building.
