

The Birmingham Eccentric

PART 2

Thursday, August 30, 1951

Downright laziness in human beings is inexcusable. Mankind was intended to become industrious, to be willing to work for his food, clothing and shelter. Laziness can be overcome, if the victim is willing; otherwise his life is toneless, a burden on others.

Katherine Kemp Feted By Friends

Hide-elet, Katherine Louise Kemp has been kept busy lately, attending the number of parties at which she has been guest of honor. A table top shower was given recently by Mrs. James Bryant and Mrs. Virginia Blinn. Nancy Pierce honored Miss Kemp at a dinner and a kitchen shower. Mrs. Earl Bartholomew and Mrs. Elmore Walling were joint hostesses at a tea and "round the clock" linen shower in Mrs. Walling's Yarmouth road home.

Mrs. George Fox and her daughter Mrs. Carl Blumen, Jr. gave a luncheon and personal shower in Mrs. Fox's home on Bates street yesterday.

The final party, the rehearsal dinner, will be given Monday evening, September 3, by Mr. and

St. Hugo Scene Of Rites

Jane Ann Hogan repeated her marriage vows to Richard Stanley Kowalczyk on Wednesday August 29.

The 10 o'clock nuptials were offered by Rev. John A. O'Brien, president of Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., at St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hogan of Arlington drive and her husband is the son of Mrs. Stanley Kowalczyk of Huntington Woods and the late Mr. Kowalczyk.

rich and Henry Hogan, Jr. Mrs. Hogan chose for her daughter's wedding a brown lace gown, waist length, with brown velvet trim. Flowers edged with bronze beads trimmed her tiny brown velvet hat and her flowers were green orchids.

A lace pattern chignon gown in a rose beige shade was worn by the bridegroom's mother. This she complemented with a head studded hat to match her gown and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

New York was the newlyweds' destination when they left on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a shantung suit in a rust shade and brown accessories. They will reside in Birmingham when they return.

Ann Arbor Church Scene Of Saturday Morning Wedding

Yvonne Engel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Engel of Lyndon road became the bride of Dennis Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boyle of Milford, at a ceremony in St. Thomas Church in Ann Arbor, Saturday.

A nuptial mass was offered following the ceremony by Father John Tierney.

The bride's gown of imported chantilly lace over ice blue satin was made with a sweetheart neckline and scalloped hemline. She wore a lace Juliet cap which held a finger tip veil of illusion. Her flowers were white roses arranged on a white prayer book.

Miss Engel asked her husband's twin sister Mildred, to be her only attendant. She wore blue, carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

Charles Herman, cousin of the bride groom from St. Clair Shores was best man.

Mrs. Engel chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua linen suit and navy accessories. Mrs. Boyle was dressed in a suit of pink linen.

A reception for the immediate family was held at the home of the bride groom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Swanson, Goddard, Ann Arbor.

The newlyweds will live at 211 North Washington, Ypsilanti, where Dennis is a senior at State Normal College. Yvonne is a graduate nurse from Mercy College.

FROM THE DEEP SOUTH ...

Bloomfield Village

Comes the design suggestion for this lovely Monterey home. Peace and the feeling of "oneness" with the world comes over you as you view the horizon from this enchanting balcony. The interior motif is equally as appealing with its multi-louvered doors, unusual stairway and gracious porch.

Mahogany paneled library. Huge kitchen. Disposal. Dishwasher. 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, built-in vanity. Games room with contemporary fireplace. Emerald green lawn 100 x 190.

Here indeed is a home to be proud of. Distinctive. Exotic. Lovelier than the picture, we know you'll appreciate the many fine qualities to be found in this residence once you inspect it. Seeing is believing—why not do it today or tonight? We're always at your service.
