

AAUW Book Sale Sept. 24 to 28

Mrs. Walter Patton, general chairman, announces that the annual AAUW Book Sale is scheduled to open Monday, September 24, in the lobby of the Detroit Edison Bldg. The sale will take place throughout the week of September 24 to September 28. The membership has been invited to a preview on Sunday, September 23rd.

This annual affair has become a "red letter" week on the calendar of many Birmingham families who look forward to supplying the entire family with some of the best current reading at a very low cost. The sale draws book lovers from all over and those seeking rare editions that might have been lost in somebody's attic for generations. Proceeds from the sale are used for educational purposes sponsored by the association.

Books are being solicited from anyone interested in the work of the association and all contributions may be arranged to be picked up by calling Mrs. G. Kyker, or Mrs. W. Patton, or taken to the basement of the Detroit Edison Bldg. the week of September 24th. Collection of fiction, non-fiction, text, research, children's and detective books, monthly magazines (no weeklies or newspapers) and stamps will continue to be made up to the opening of the sale.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM DEPAUK, JR.

Former Localite Weds In California Ceremony

The First Methodist Church of Van Nuys, Calif. was the scene of the candlelight ceremony that united Jessie Margaret Doyle and William DePauk, Jr.

The 8 o'clock ceremony, read by Rev. Claude Smith of Pasadena took place on Saturday, August 11.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Doyle of Birmingham wore a gown of white embroidered nylon over satin. It was fashioned with an off shoulder neckline and yoke of nylon illusion. Her lace edged veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and her bouquet was of white roses and orange blossoms centered with an orchid. Mrs. Alfred H. Thomsen, the bride's sister with whom she has been living, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were cousins of the bride, Mrs. Henry Vis and Mrs. Bernard Parisian. Little Marlene DePauk was flower girl.

Edward W. DePauk performed the duties as best man and the ushers were Daniel W. and Philip DePauk. Philip DePauk, Jr. was ring bearer.

Following the reception in the church parlors the newlyweds departed for a honeymoon trip to Grand Canyon. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William DePauk of Van Nuys, Calif.

Pierce Family in Japan

Miss Betty Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Pierce, who is a student at Smith College, has recently joined her family in Tokyo, Japan, for the rest of the summer. Her brother, Bice, is spending the summer in Ann Arbor, where he is attending the University of Michigan summer school.

Mrs. Pierce has recently been elected President of The Affiliation of Women's Clubs in Japan, of which Mrs. Ridgway has accepted the honorary presidency. She replaces Mrs. MacArthur, who has held this office since the occupation began.
