

Bride Designs Own Gown

Mary Lois Cole designed and made the gown of blush pink satin and imported tulle lace which she wore for the 4 o'clock ceremony.

MRS. RUSSELL D. ALEXANDER, money at the First Presbyterian church where she became the bride of Russell Don Alexander, son of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Alexander of Coldwater, Mich.

For the Friday service at which Rev. Glen Harris officiated the attendants were gowned alike in blue dotted swiss. Elizabeth Ann Cole, as her sister's maid of honor, carried a bouquet of white lilies and blue delphinium. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Duncan Strong, Mrs. John Duncan, and Betty Francis Butts carried white daisies.

William Low of Fendale, was best man and ushers were Francis Gene Balle, Duncan Strong and Harold Dillabaugh.

Mrs. Cole wore a gown of gold chiffon and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Alexander's gown of tulle, chiffon was complemented by a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The bride and groom left the reception, held at Orchard Lake country club, for a honeymoon trip through Northern Michigan. The bride was wearing a white tulle dress and a blue linen duster and hat to match.

The young couple will reside in Lansing when they return from their northern trip.
