Summer Activities

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Post and Barb spent their vacation at a cottage in Caswell. They motored to Chicago and left little Chuckie with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doucet spent last week in Mallet Lake. They made excursions including several times to Mackinac Island, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Minkar accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Balne of Toronto were the hosts of the last week of Mr. and Mrs. William White on Auburn Drive. Mrs. Balne is White's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Dermott Mac Carthy and Deirdre and Jimmy have returned to Sheridan street after spending a month with their grandmother in Long Beach, Ind. The James Lillis household is once more all at home with Mary Ann Lillis and her grandmother Mrs. Anna McCloskey returning Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. James Lillis on Tuesday. They spent the summer at a hotel in Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marchetti spent two weeks with Larry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Marchetti in Hazelton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Shaw returned to their home on Sheridan drive last week after a five week stay in a cottage on Wawona Beach at the Straits of Mackinac. On July 29 their oldest daughter Penny, left the cottage to spend a month at Camp Westminister on Higgins Lake. Their other two children Elizabeth and Billy returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Siddall and two of their children Jane and John will leave Saturday for their cottage at Onkema for another two weeks. Little Jimmie will stay with his grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Siddall in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDonald and daughters Paula and Susan are home on Marguerite after a three weeks tour through the New England states. They spent a few days in Fairlee, Vt. with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hazen.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Danville and sons, Dennis and Hugh spent the weekend in Lodi, Ind.

Moving About

Mr. and Mrs. Urban Woodhouse and daughters have moved to their new home at 592 Lakeside, Birmingham. They spent the summer at their farm in Bucks County, Pa., leaving Jane and Allison visiting in Haven, Me. Ceccey and Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wallis are newcomers at 3231 Auburn Drive having moved here from Wood Dale, Ill. with their two daughters Mary Jo, 7, and Nancy, 4 years old. Wallis is with General Motors.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Bird and daughter Peggy have moved into their new home on Vernon Circle. Peggy is employed by the Metro Zimmers in Detroit and her father is plant manager at the Hydrex manufacturing Company. The Birds have a married daughter, Mrs. Robert Meyrand, Jr. in Detroit.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

JOHN W. SKELLEY, 788 W. Lincoln, shows his award winning model automobile to John J. Cronin, General Motors vice-president and general manager of its body-building division, following announcement of the 1951 Fisher Body Craftsmen's Guild winners. Young Skelley, whose father is employed at the GMC Truck and Coach division, shared Michigan second state honors in the junior division with another entrant. Guild regulations provide that when a GM family member wins, duplicate awards are given. Skelley will receive a $100 cash award. In addition, two other local area youths were award winners, David J. Burkhardt, 348 Park, a GMC Truck and Coach employee shared third state honors in senior division with Dale L. Berg, 5920 Niles, Troy township. Each received $50.

RECREATION ROUND-UP

Twenty-five members of the regular playground took part in the Quanton playground circus Friday morning. The children arrived in a variety of costumes.

Tommy Camp, as circus barker, announced the program. Miss Judith Parry was judge. First prize went to Karin Halvorsen who wore a Dutch costume. Sammy Smith took second prize as "Heaven Big Jujun".

The children planned the affair and did their own decorating. Miss Sue Halsted, the playground director, supervised the activity. Daily average at the playground is 40 children.

One of the enjoyable activities sponsored by the Recreation Board this summer is family swim night each Thursday at Barnum pool. More parents are encouraged to bring their youngsters and participate in the fun. One parent at least must enter the water with his or her children. Otherwise the pool becomes too crowded for swimming and life-guarding. It is hoped to keep Thursday a night not only for all the family but just for the family. Adults are welcomed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

One of the encouraging sights this summer to rifle instructor Frank Weaver has been the occasional appearance of girl shooters.

Frank admits that he was concerned at first about the reception that the female might receive from the more muscular members of the human race. However, after the girls drew a few heads and demonstrated a businesslike attitude, they were treated with a great deal of respect.

In fact the boys have learned, says Frank, that this is one of the few sports in which women
