

Puppeteers Take Show To Crippled Children

Within a week, the Birmingham Puppeteers of the A.R.U.W. are taking Christmas entertainment to four different groups of crippled or orphaned children.

On Thursday evening, December 13, the children of the Guardian Angel Orphan's Home of Detroit will see the Puppeteers' marionette production of "Beebehrain Goes West" at the Harmonie Club.

Members of the Women's Traffic Club of Detroit are sponsoring the performance, and are providing a Christmas party.

The audience by his marionette counterpart.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA sorority has commissioned the Puppeteers to take their show to All Saints' Church, Pontiac, on Tuesday, December 18, for the Christmas party given by the Oakland County Association for crippled children.

ON SATURDAY afternoon, December 15, the show will go to Cranbrook School as part of the entertainment in the Christmas party given for crippled children from Southern Oakland County.

This party will be put on by the student cabinet of Kingswood and Cranbrook schools, for children under the care of the Visiting Nurses Association.

At this performance the real Santa Claus will be introduced to Crippled children from all over this area will be transported to the church for the festivities. Mrs. Harold M. Watts is in charge of arrangements for the Thetas.

On Wednesday, December 19, the Puppeteers trek to Children's Hospital, Detroit, for a fourth performance. At this traditional Christmas party, entertainment is being furnished by radio station WJL, and gifts will be provided by Crowley Milner's.

THIS MARIONETTE performance is a revised version of the "Beebehrain Goes West" show, which was given several times in Birmingham last spring.

Members of the news cast include Mrs. Charles Bigelow as Beebehrain, Mrs. Robert von Maur who will pull strings for the sheriff and villain and Mrs. James Slayden, who will handle Cicero, the horse, as well as the sheriff's daughter and the mountain lion.

Mrs. Donald Howarth will provide sound effects. Stage-moving committees for the three shows include Mrs. Stuart Edgerton, Mrs. Tayer Cowman, Mrs. Michael Reardon, Mrs. James Scribner, Mrs. Jack Moore, Mrs. D. F. McCarthy, Mrs. James Siddall and Mrs. Calvin Dennison.
